W'LAKE SIGNALS = NO WATER

RECORD RAIN STORMS LASH DALY CITY AREA

This Community Escapes Damage

"Nothing like it in 20 years."

"The worse rain storm I've ever seen."

Those were but a few of the comments from newcomers and oldtimers alike in Daly City this week as heavy rainstorms lashed the Peninsula and most of California.

They were right, too. Weather officials report that over the past week 8.3 inches of dew have fallen in Daly City. This compares with the average of 1.92 inches for the same period last year.

While the storms had somewhat abated by Wednesday, it will be a long time before residents forget Saturday's burst when rain fell at the rate of a half inch every two hours. Close to 3.50 inches were recorded for the 24 hour period ending at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Except for a few stopped up sewers and minor flooding of basements, Daly City escaped any serious damage from the lashing gales.

The new Starlite drive-in theater, just over the north-east Daly City line in San Mateo county, suffered a set back in its opening date late this month. The rains washed out a bank near the ticket entrance and for a time it appeared the ticket office might be washed away.

Westlake and Broadmoor reported no serious damage. Broadmoor, where streets were flooded with tons of silt last year, escaped the same disaster. The planting of grass and smaller plants in the banks bordering the streets held back any land slides.

Further down the county scores of intersections along El Camino Real were flooded and cars frequently stalled. And in Sunnybrae and San Mateo Village many homes were flooded with two to three feet of water.

HOW IT LOOKS FROM A CORNER

By BILL KATZ

It Ain't What It Seems

A suspicion held by many a TV-wrestling fan was confirmed this week by Frank Bria, director of the Daly City Boys club and an amateur wrestler of some standing.

Many a fan has wondered how the lads could take such a beating and still come up without a broken bone or so much as a strained eyelash. Well, except for a very few matches, the bone crushers have the whole thing rehearsed hours before they come before the camera . . . at least that's Bria's contention. In fact, it has gotten to the point where the wrestling profession is more actual twisting and throwing.

For example when you see one of your favorites elbowing the ear right off the other contestant he's probably giving his competitor a massage of less intensity and force than gone through every day by the gals in the beauty salons. And those tremendous falls are so timed that the "fall guy" hits the mat with the ease of a cat dropped from a two foot chair.

This isn't to say wrestling isn't an art, but it's no more dangerous, except to fans with high blood pressure, than an afternoon tea party.

History A La Cuppy

Will Cuppy (no relation to the guppy) died last year after spending 16 years writing a history book. The finished product was published recently under the appropriate title of "The Declcine And Fall Of Practically Everybody."

Unlike other writing dealing with history, Cuppy's masterpiece is an accurate, down to earth expose of the great names from the

A 34-year-old southerner from Charleston County, South Carolina, E. Robert Stallings, today is San Mateo County's new county manager.

Stallings was picked Saturday noon by the County board of supervisors from a list of three top candidates submitted by the civil service commission.

He is now county manager of Charleston County, Charleston, South Carolina and is the youngest of the five persons selected from a field of 40. He will start work on the $12,000 a year job January 8 when County Executive Frederick Peterson ends his elective term.

Job Similar

Commissioner Alvis S. Hatch noted that Stallings stepped into a similar job of county manager in Charleston. As county manager he worked with 27 aldermen and seven county councilmen.

Supervisor Edward R. McDonald said that Stallings will sit with the board of supervisors at its meetings and carry out the policies laid down by the board. He noted that the supervisors will "legislate" and Stallings will "administer."

Stanford Graduate

Although he is a native of Alabama, Stallings received his higher education at Stanford and worked in California for most of his 35 years.

His first job was in Los Angeles in 1937 with the county's budget department. Subsequently he served as assistant in the chief administrative office in Los Angeles until 1943 when he entered the navy. He was released in 1946 as a lieutenant.

For two years Stallings worked as assistant chief administrative officer of San Diego County, and 18 months ago took the post in Charleston county.

Stallings is married and has three daughters, 8, 6 and 4 months old.

DC College Student To Appear in "Who's Who"

Beth Calvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Calvin of 222 Whittier street, has been selected as one of the 32 students at San Jose State College whose name and biography will appear in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The students are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service. She is a junior majoring in interior decorating.

Thanksgiving

"As we kneel in Your House of Worship, we thank you, Lord, for all our blessings . . .

Throughout the nation, bright fires glow in open hearths . . . children sing as they eagerly set the table for the holiday feast . . . and the family is united on the occasion of traditional Thanksgiving Day

Let this Thanksgiving be one for the entire world as we raise our voices in a prayer for universal peace.

Police Clean Up Two Local Crimes

Pleading guilty to indecent exposure, Bernard J. Price, 34, 235 Victoria street, San Francisco, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail Friday.

Price entered his plea before Judge W. J. Sweeney in Daly City's police court. The San Francisco man was captured boarding a bus by Officers David Johnstone, J. D. Walsh and Sgt. Rico Benedetti last Friday morning, only a few minutes after his offense.

Meanwhile, police were cleaning up the last of the burglary of the deLeon Music store September 12. Chief W. W. Sunderland reports

"COUSIN BOB" IS DALY CITY'S SINGING CONTRIBUTION TO TV

During The Day He Works At OLPH But On Thursday Night Entertains Kids

Bob Moore, 29 Bismark, fondly known by the children as "Cousin Bob" is a sandy haired young man whose bean pole figure is equally well known at Our Lady of Perpetual Help School and on the TV program "Happy Birthday."

During the day Bob is an overalled janitor at the school, but every Thursday between 6:15 and 6:30 p.m. on KRON-TV he strums the guitar for the amusement and edification of the kids, and even a few grownups. While Bob works alone at the school he shares billing on the TV show with a duck, a score of grinning kids and a lovely M. C. known as Lucille Bliss, and by voice as the principal in many Walt Disney cartoons.

Entertains Kids

The purpose of the show is to entertain the kids, and by song, chatter, toys and a large birthday cake the majority of the small fry leave the studio with full stomachs and happy smiles.

Bob, who may be the only Daly City man now on television, plays a dual role on the show. His principal job is to play a variety of folk songs especially chosen to amuse the children. Outside of that he spends a few minutes before the program setting up the props, telling stories to put the children at ease, and readying his duck for the dubious honor of hauling a small wagon back and forth across the studio.

Nervous Duck

The duck, an integral part of the evening's entertainment, is one of three Bob trained for show work several years ago. Bob isn't telling what happened to the other two, although he sometimes sings a song concerning a duck who "greased the chins" of several foxes with understanding and a grin. The duck doesn't care much for this song.

TV is the latest media for Bob's pleasing voice that has entertained everyone from children at OLPH to midnight patrons in some of San Francisco's leading night clubs. He says he prefers TV to other outlets, especially the bistros where most of the patrons were too far gone to enjoy anything but a stiff highball.

Works To Sing

For those who ask what a successful ballad singer is doing as a janitor Bob has a simple answer: "I can't sing unless I've done some real manual labor. Working around the school puts me in a frame of mind to really cut lose with my ballads."

Bob also notes that he has a

DALY CITY HOUSEWIVES GET BIRD

Thanksgiving Turkeys Cheaper, Better

Daly City housewives get the bird this week, but it won't be so hard to take.

Thanksgiving turkeys will be easier on the pocketbook and better tasting.

Market Flodoed

Why should this holiday delicacy be reduced in price when retail costs on several foods particularly meat have gone up?

National sources explain the welcome drop as a consequence of an abundance of gobblers at local markets. Turkey growers recently flooded stores with their produce after holding back in expectation of higher prices. Government buying and subsequent higher prices failed to develop and so the turkey people decided to unload. Hence, the cost of turkeys figures to be lower and more uniform.

Record Crop

The traditional feast bird population hits record proportions this year. Estimates show that around 44,500,000 turkeys were produced this year. That's 2,500,000 more than the crop for Thanksgiving Day, 1949, and almost a 31 per cent increase over the number ten years ago.

Like the movies, the turkeys are better than ever this year. So says the Department of Agriculture. The birds, through improved methods of breeding, contain more white meat, more meat in relation to the bone, and are tender and more compact.

Turkeys, from as small as 5½ pounds to the giants of 30 pounds, are being sold throughout the country.

Other Meats Rise

Cranberries, the necessary trimmings to the big meal, will be plentiful as usual. The second largest crop on record goes to consumers this week, 941,000 barrels.

While the turkey trend was downward, the price changes in other meats went the other way. Beef, pork and lamb items have been upped from two to 13 cents a pound in marketing centers.

Even lightweight chickens, which had been on the decline recently, are two to six cents higher in some places.

Top grade eggs and bag-packed coffee have been reduced in many stores by two to five cents a pound.

In the produce line, carrots, snap and lima beans, peppers and radishes were a trifle higher, while celery, brussels sprouts, cabbage, western apples, fresh corn and Florida oranges averaged a shade lower.

War Brings Increase

Since the Korean War began, a bureau of labor statistics survey informs, retail food prices have climbed about 1.6 per cent since June.

At the end of October, prices were more than double those compiled by a poll of the 1935-39 period, the recent survey shows. The survey also revealed that during the last two weeks of October prices eased about 0.4 per cent, with fresh fruits and vegetables, meats, poultry, coffee and sugar down slightly, and eggs, dairy products, fish, canned and dried fruits and vegetables higher.

No Ceilings Neded

Several foods, however, are still priced below the peak levels of 1948, according to the National Association of Retail Grocers.

Ralph Trigg, national food administrator, said this week that we have abundant supplies of most agricultural commodities which means that price ceilings and other controls are unwarranted at this time.

PERMIT TO USE LEGION BUILDING GRANTED NURSERY

Council Reaches Compromise On School

Reaching a compromise Monday evening, the city council issued the Toyland Nursery school a permit for one year to use the American Legion Hall, 474 San Diego.

The use permit was granted only after an hour's discussion during which time strong pro and con arguments were heard for the proposed location.

However, when it was all over the council agreed that the need of a nursery school is stronger now than a small "violation" of the zoning ordinance which outlaws a commercial enterprise (as is the Toyland Nursery school) in a residential zone.

Happy Words

In rendering their decision the council had a few happy words for the objecting residents. Councilmen asserted that if any time during the coming year the nursery school proves a nuisance, the use permit will be revoked.

One of the families living next door to the Legion Hall granted this was fair enough, but a Mrs. Gambler who lives three doors away at 458 San Diego was still opposed to the school.

All of the opposition to the nursery rested on the contention by the two families that children make too much noise and are a nuisance. Taking a more technical view of the problem, the council was reluctant to give the use permit as it would violate the zoning ordinance.

Green Light

Now that she has the green light from the council, Mrs. Grace Wilson manager of the nursery, said she will proceed with plans immediately to refinish the building. When this work has been done it must be approved by the state before a nursery permit can be issued.

As planned Mrs. Wilson's school will take care of some 30 children during the day. The children will range in age from 2 to 5 years.

More Business

Other business before the adjourned meeting of the council was.

1. Ordering the owner of the sewer at Wildwood avenue and Foothill to close over the sewer which is now a potential menace as it is filled with water and has a 20 foot wide open top.

2. Appointed Joseph Phillips to act as appraiser for the land on either side of Knowles street that the council must purchase in order to widen that street from the Southern Pacific tracks to Junipero Serra boulevard.

3. The city put in a claim against the Hartford Life Insurance company for $1,908.66 . . . the expense incurred when the top of reservoir No. 2 was recently destroyed in a gale.

4. Called for bids for the installation of pipe on Junipero Serra boulevard. The bids will be opened December 11.

5. Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Police Chief W. W. Sunderland were requested to attend a county wide defense meeting in Redwood City November 30.

PALY SHATTERS JEFF TITLE DREAM, 21-0; TRIBE-SSF FEUD NEXT

The big one got away from the Jefferson Indians last Friday in the mud. Palo Alto's Vikings romped over the Tribe, 21-0, to practically assure the Peninsula Athletic League championship.

On Turkey Day, the Indians, now holding a 5-1 record in league play, will joust South City's Warriors in their traditional feud on the Jefferson Field. Kickoff is set at 11 a.m.

SAN FRANCISCO CLAIMS PROJECT THREATENS TO CUT OFF WATER LINE

Restraining Order Obtained To Hold Up Work On Needed Signals, Channelization

Peaceful settlement of a dispute which threatens to tie up work on the signals and chanellizations at Junipero Serra and the extension of Alemany (Highway No. 1) was seen today by a division of highways engineer.

Last Friday the city of San Francisco obtained a restraining order against the state division of highways and Eaton and Smith, contractors. The order is based on the claim that the present work at the intersection threatens to collapse a 54 inch pipe line and cut the water supply to San Francisco and San Mateo county.

Water Endangered

"This pipe line supplies water to most of San Francisco and San Mateo county," George W. Pracy, general manager and chief engineer of the San Francisco water department stated in an affidavit.

Pracy asserts that the division of highways is piling dirt over the pipe line, threatening to bury it to a depth of 15 feet. He further claims the line (which is now down 13 feet) could not stand the additional two feet of pressure.

L. A. Weymouth, district engineer for the division of highways, said it was true that the signals and channelization would require an additional two foot grade. However, he questioned that this would in any way endanger the pipe line.

Fill Now In

The district engineer noted that most of the fill was now in, and if the pipe has to be raised it would cost the state "thousands of extra dollars."

"We've been talking it over with San Francisco, and I think we can reach some solution before the week is out," Weymouth said today.

He concluded that the present restraining order had not held up the work, as it came at the beginning of the rain which has been more effective in keeping workmen off the job than any court order.

The contract for the job of putting in the signals and traffic islands at both the intersections of Junipero Serra and Highway No. 1 and Skyline and Highway No. 1 was let to Eaton and Smith for $101,142. Weymouth said the restraining order would not halt work at the Skyline intersection.

KVSM Inaugurates National Hookup

Inaugurating its new coast-to-coast radio network, the Progressive Broadcasting System (represented by KSVM—1050 kc), will feature the "Salute To Progress" this Sunday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Recognizing the growing popularity of KSVM, the Progressive Broadcasting System has selected the station as the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area outlet.

Such stars as Bob Hope, Spike Jones, Peggy Lee, Frankie Laine, Eddie Arrold and Mel Torm will be featured on the special Sunday broadcast over KSVM.

A star studded array of new radio programs on a 12 hour daily schedule will begin on Sunday, November 26, over station KVSM.

Featured on the regular broadcasts will be the nation's top newscasters, audience participation shows, four dramatic serials, children's stories, sportcasters and a variety of disc-jokey shows.

DALY CITY MAY GET SIGNALS IN NEXT SIX WEEKS

A tentative promise of signals and channelization for the Daly City business district was forthcoming this week from the state highway division.

Mayor Paul Green said he received a letter from the division promising some definite action within the next six weeks. No mention was made of the streetcar tracks at the "top of the hill" which to date have held up putting in safety islands.

As planned, there will be channelization and signals in the heart of Daly City as well as in the Mission-Market district.

SKIPPY IS SKIPPED BY PROOF READER

"Has anybody here seen Skippy?"

That was a question posed in one of our columns last week. To date we haven't received any answer concerning the lost dog.

However, we'll gladly give a ransom in king's gold to anybody who can turn up a dog described like Skippy in that column.

" He (Skippy) disappeared a few evenings ago, and the whole family misses him. He is white, with TEN ears."

Hit-Run Driver Kills Two Men Near Cemetery

Two men, one of them unidentified, were struck down and killed by a hit-run driver as they crossed the intersection of El Camino Real on foot in front of the Woodlawn Cemetery at 5:40 p.m. Sunday.

John Darrow, 59, of Lincoln, Nebraska, died at Junipero Serra hospital at 11 a.m. Monday. He had suffered compound fractures of both legs, a fractured arm, internal injuries and shock.

His unidentified companion, about 60 years old, died at 7:15 p.m. Monday from a fractured skull and internal injuries.

Printer Held

A 28-year-old San Bruno printer, Joseph V. Watkins, is being held in the county jail on a felony hit-run charge as a result of the accident in which the two men were killed.

Another San Bruno man, R. J. Meares, was credited by the highway patrol with being responsible for the arrest of Watkins.

Meares told officers that he slowed down when he saw the two men crossing the highway. However, another car passed him, Meares told police, and struck down the two men.

The bodies were thrown into the air, and onto the hood of the car.

Quick Arrest

Giving chase, Meares managed to get the license number of the hit-run driver. The Highway Patrol checked the registration and went to Watkins' home at 6:15—35 minutes after the accident.

Interviewed by Fred Wyckoff, assistant district attorney, Watkins claimed he did not remember striking anyone.

MOTION TO KILL PG&E RATE HIKE DENIED

A motion for dismissal of a request by Pacific Gas & Electric Company that its gas rates be increased to yield an additional $18,275,000 a year was denied this week by the State Public Utilities Commission.

Speaking for the Commission, Harold P. Huls said:

"The laws favor the deciding of a case upon its merits, rather than upon a motion to dismiss."

The hearing on the PGE request for rate increase resumed Tuesday.

FRENCH DRAFTEES

A rather startling situation was recently revealed by the Paris correspondent of the Chicago Daily News when he reported that men drafted into the French army are paid only $1.02 a month. This compares with approximately $30 a month for British draftees and $70 to $80 a month for Americans called into the service. Virtually no provision has been made in the past for the families of French servicemen and this has created great bitterness among them because of the poverty their families suffer. Since married men will have to be drafted if a large French army is to be created as part of the defense brigade for Western Europe it is feared that the morale of the French would be extremely low unless reasonable provisions were made for their families. Men can't be expected to fight well when their loved ones are being neglected.

BOWL PACT

With the five-year agreement between the Pacific Coast Conference and the Big Ten due to expire after the game on next January 1, there will be strong pressure from this section for at least one major change in the contract if it is to be renewed. That change would be to discard the rule which now permits a Big Ten team to play in the Rose Bowl but once in three years. This provision frequently creates a situation where the Pacific Coast champion plays not the champion of the Big Ten but the second best team. Two years ago Michigan, the Big Ten winner, could not come West because it had played here in the previous year. This year it appears that Ohio State has the best squad. But they can't come because they played here in the last game. Although the Coast teams have had little success even against the runners-up of the Big Ten, they still prefer to play the champion in the Rose Bowl. And that is the way it should be.

DRIVER TRAINING

The American Automobile Association is urging an expanded program of driver training in high schools. The facts in support of this program are quite convincing. It costs on an average of $34 to train each high school student to drive safely and it is believed this cost can be brought below $30. The annual loss to the American public due to highway accidents runs around two billion dollars. It takes a good deal more than $30 or $34 just to patch up a car that has been in anything less than a minor accident. There is also the greater cost involved in personal injury. A few million dollars invested in high school driver education could eventually save the country billions.

HIGH FINANCE

One illustration of what becomes of the taxpayers' money was recently uncovered in Texas by the Senate defense investigating committee. The committee discovered that a citizen bought an acre full of aircraft computers which were included in the military surplus stock. Each computer had cost the government $7,200. The civilian got them for FIVE CENTS each. He then turned around and sold the lot to the Air Force for $65,000—and the Air Force was more than glad to get them. "Maybe" military expenses could be reduced if all branches of the service were kept fully informed as to the "surplus" equipment available.

THE MAYOR SPEAKS UP

San Francisco's vigorous Mayor Elmer Robinson has gone to bat with Federal officials over the credit restrictions on installment sales. The restrictions are seriously affecting business, says the Mayor, and should be modified.

Mayor Robinson's protests are being echoed by other civic and business leaders throughout the country as they watch with growing fear the sharp slackening of the nation's vital retail sales volume. They know that if sales continue low, unemployment and business failures are bound to result. And those who are always hit first and hardest under such circumstances are the small businessmen for whom Washington bureaucrats perpetually express such great concern.

It is readily acknowledged that some credit restrictions are necessary and desirable in connection with the nation's defense program. But Federal officials never seem satisfied with anything short of excessive measures. If such measures weaken our national economy—as these threaten to do—the defense program will eventually be impaired.

A more realistic—and moderate—approach to the subject of credit restrictions is certainly needed in high places.

CALL FOR A CLEANUP

In its final report which emphasizes the shocking crime conditions in California, the Governor's Special Crime Study Commission stresses two points that call for quick corrective action. These are the virtual immunity of organized gangsters from prosecution by local authorities, and the favoritism allegedly conferred on racketeers by officials of the U. S. Internal Revenue Bureau. This favoritism is said to stem, in some cases, from business relationships between such officials and professional hoodlums.

On the first point the Commission says: "Comparatively few professional criminals enter our jails or prisons. It is rare indeed that a professional criminal who has attained any real measure of financial success pays any serious penalty even when caught."

On the second point the commission reports that "the wealth which is being accumulated year after year by racketeers in California is proof that professional gamblers, white slavers, narcotic peddlers and other criminals, in marked contrast to honest businessmen, are evading payment of their lawful income taxes in very large amounts." After referring to the business connections said to exist between some U. S. Internal Revenue officials and professional mobsters the report declares: "There never has been a racketeer, hoodlum or gangster of first-rank importance convicted of income tax fraud in California."

The Crime Commission, it is to be assumed, has not made these charges without evidence to back them. Whether such evidence is sufficient to bring about convictions remains to be seen. But the people of California should insist that these charges be thoroughly investigated and that prompt, forceful action be taken to stop the ever-spreading underworld influence in this state.

POLITICS, ECONOMICS AND TAXES

There is great political value in an excess profits tax. But the practical effects of such a tax on the national economy may be seriously questioned.

To the average citizen an excess profits tax, especially in time of war, seems highly justified since he feels that no industry should get rich on war profits. This is a logical view. The problem, however, of translating this into a fair and workable tax law is stupendous.

If it were possible in all instances to clearly and justly define what profits were excess profits the matter of taxing them would be simple. But the method of classifying profits as either "normal" or "excess" must be arbitrarily set up by law, and this method can hardly be equitable in many, if not most, cases. What's more, the confiscatory nature of an excess profits levey does not give industry the incentive to maintain high production in order to earn larger returns. In fact our experience in World War II showed that the excess profits tax encouraged a great deal of needless spending by business concerns.

Industry should certainly pay its share of the increased defense costs and this calls for a boost in corporation taxes. Business observers agree, however, that it would be more equitable simply to increase the straight corporation taxes rather than impose the excess profits levy.

In the interest of the national economy taxes must be based on sensible considerations rather than on emotional or political factors.

LAME DUCKS

Time was when congressmen defeated in November continued to hold office until the next March. Since 1933 their stay in Congress has been shortened from four months to two months after the election. But even this abbreviated period of tenure doesn't eliminate the "lame ducks" when congressional sessions are held between election day and the first of January. Such is the situation now with approximately 70 or more repudiated lawmakers returning to Washington for the session this month. Maybe the law should be changed again so that the term of a defeated congressman would end immediately seems more sensible.

Indian Squaws Make Fuss Down Jefferson Way

Four little damsels have made a lot of noise out Jefferson way the past two months.

Their boisterous bellering has been appreciated for a change by the opposite sex, a rare turn of events in these days of chatty women folks.

The fuss and hoop-to-do comes about each Friday when the Indian footballers take the field for a head-banging four quarters. Responsible for causing frequent commotion are Jeff's quartet of yell-leaders.

The comely squaws who get the mostest from the Tribe's rooting section are Jo Ann Van Vliet, Nancy McCaffery, Jackie Berardy, and Shirley Creighton.

The grid huskies get the nod, but the fairer foursome are easier on the eye. Up to two weeks ago, an elongated youngster name of Frank Garcia, was in charge of the whole yell-leading works. Garcia, the Abraham Lincoln of Jefferson for size, had to leave school for some reason or other and the girls are on their own. No one to lead them.

So they take turns each game allowing each to take charge once in awhile.

Last Friday, the girls and the football team had their toughest assignment. Palo Alto's rooting section and team was bad enough, without having to fight the elements.

The young ladies stayed on the job despite the privations of swamp-like surroundings. The wind blew, the rain pelted down, the teams tangled, and all the time the gals brought the only sunshine to a very dreary day for Jefferson.

Glenn South's grid team can hold its own with any in the league and so can the sweet young misses who make with the hisses. They've outhollered every foe in sight, and definitely are all-P.A.L. in their line of duty.

Another Burglar Goes Behind Bars

Still another major burglary was cleared up this week by Daly City police with the capture of Robert Ladd, 22, by San Francisco police.

According to the San Francisco department, Ladd, a native of that city, admitted burglarizing the Shell Station the evening of October 2, of $250 in cash and equipment.

Furthermore Ladd said this was but one of many such service station burglaries in San Bruno, South San Francisco, Millbrae, Daly City and San Francisco, police said.

Ladd was charged with burglary and his bail was set at $4,000 by Judge Sweeney.

Over the past two weeks Daly City police have cleared up four burglaries and a robbery.

Wash Machine Fire Only Real Thing This Week

Following a series of false alarms set off by wet, faulty wiring, firemen had a chance to answer a real fire at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

When blaze busters arrived they found the wiring to Mrs. Stephens' washing machine had shorted, burning out the washing machine motor. The firemen checked the small blaze with little difficulty. Damage was negligible, hose hoisters said.

OBITUARY

Mrs. M. E. Chesney

Mrs. Maynard (May) E. Chesney, 71, 1209 Brunswick street, died at her home November 21 after a long illness. She was the widow of the late Andrew P. Chesney, well known Daly City fire chief.

A member of Court St. Mary No. 1155. Mrs. Chesney was active in civic affairs throughout her life. She had lived in Daly City for 40 years.

She is survived by a son, Ray McChesney, two sisters, Mrs. Annie Ahern and Mrs. Madeline Shibi. She was the sister of the late Charles and Robert McMichael and Sarah McCart.

Requiem high mass was recited for Mrs. Chesney at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church Wednesday morning. Interment was at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Born in New England, Bob picked up many of his folk songs between 15 and 20 when he was getting away from his home state by wandering a la foot and rail across the length and breadth of the country. He also improved his voice and instrumental ability when he served for many years in the army.

Boys Club To Give Plastics Show

Saturday evening, December 2, a display of Penny Wise Plastic home gifts will be shown in the Daly City Boys club headquarters, No. 2 Hillside boulevard. The time of the show is 7:30 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and there is no obligation to purchase any of the items on display.

Glasses to Drapes

By the way, these articles include everything from small plastic glasses to drapes made of the same material.

"I'm sure anyone seeking an appropriate Christmas gift won't leave with free gifts. These plastic gifts will be given away by the Boys Club.

All of the money from the show is to be used to purchase equipment for the Boys Club.

Water Rate Hearing Set For Nov. 27th

Proposed increases in water rates which would affect Broadmoor and almost every San Mateo county user will be up for public hearing Monday, November 27.

The hearing will be before the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission. The commission is studying an engineering report recommendation rate which would boost revenue $970,000 a year.

Much of the increase would be borne by Peninsula water companies, including the California Water Company which supplys Broadmor. (Daly City would not be affected, as it has its own water supply.)

Officials said the possible increase to householders has not been computed yet, but estimated some sort of increase would be certain.

Wants Toys For Needy Children

Toys for children who might otherwise be forgotten at Christmas time are now being collected by members of Scout Troop No. 106.

The scouts will repair the toys and distribute them to less fortunate families the night before Christmas.

However, in order to repair toys, the scouts must have something to work with. That is where the public comes in.

"We will repair any toy, no matter how badly damaged," Scoutmaster Henry Weisner said today. "However, we need the toys to work on during the evenings."

Anyone interested in donating some toys is asked to call Weisner at PLaza 5-0439. Also, the toys may be brought to the scout headquarters, 255 Vista Grande, between 7:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. Monday and 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

"The scouts could also use some extra tools with which to repair the toys," Weisner said.

TOO YOUNG TO DRINK BUT CAUGHT BY BEER

Larry Laing is too young to drink beer, but the spirits nevertheless had him in their "power" at noon Tuesday.

Three-year-old Larry was playing in the front yard of his home when he suddenly let out a painful cry. When his mother arrived she found he had stuck his thumb in the punctured hole of a beer can.

After trying to work the can loose, his mother finally gave up and called police. Taken to Junipero Serra hospital, Larry was treated for a cut thumb, but only after hospital attendants had used a can opener to free him from the "reluctant" beer can.

Coach Has Weather Worries As Braves Approach Finale

Jefferson frosh-soph football tutor Joe McGrath must be getting tired of that "on again off again feeling."

Seems as how the weather has him perplexed about keeping football dates.

Wednesday, the local frosh-soph eleven was scheduled to tangle with South San rancisco if the rain subsided.

Next Tuesday, McGrath hopes for good conditions so his team can meet San Jose at Jefferson in a makeup game.

McGrath said his boys might meet the Poly frosh Friday, December 1 at home. With the usual allowance — elements permitting. This will conclude the season. The Braves have yet to win after three PAL encounters.

Sportswomen Plan Many Events For Coming Weeks

Many events are coming up in the near future on the calander of the Daly City Sportswomen.

The most important at the moment, being the installation and dinner, which was scheduled for November 25th, at the Colonial Cafe, but which has been changed to December 6th, at the Casino. Reason for the change is the prospect of having a joint installation with the Daly City Rod and Gun Club. As many of each organization would go to both, it seemed a good idea to join forces and have the installation together. The Sportswomen so voted. It remains, however, for the Rod and Gun to vote on the change. Many of the leading Rod and Gunners expressed agreement, but it will probably be put to a vote at the next meeting. Won't our faces be red if it is voted down.

Invitation

An invitation has been extended the Daly City Sportswomen by the Associated Sportsmwomen, of which our organization is a member, to a dinner at Bernstien's Fish Grotto, on Powell st., on Friday, December 8, to plan a christmas party for the Associated Sportswomen.

The Sportswomen have been asked by the Rod and Gun Club to roast turkeys and hams for their big New Year's dance to be held at Washington Masonic Hall, San Jose and San Juan Avenues, New Year's Eve. The food will be placed on tables, buffet style, and anyone may help himself any time he wishes. How does this menu sound to all you hungry people? Roast turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce, baked ham, pickles, bread, butter and coffee? Last year's dance was very successful and this one sounds even better.

Turkey Roast

Turkeys will be roasted by Frances Neinstiel, Irene Maloney, Betty White, Leonora O'Neill, Laurien Fox, and Mildred Whinen. Virginia Meierding, who isn't a Sportswoman right now, but who hopes to join again when she can come to the meetings, is baking two hams for the dance. Ed Meierding, president of the Rod and Gun, says if there is anything left of the turkeys after the dance, the cooks may take it home.

A committee consisting of Laurien Fox, Mary Sullivan, Frances Nenstiel (chairman) and Mildred Whinnen, was appointed to visit several stores and see what is available in jackets in the Sportswomen's colors of gold and blue. If nothing satisfactory is available, the jackets will be made to order for the Sportswomen from their own specifications.

May Ideas

Ideas for a May Day float were discussed but this will take a lot more spade work before anything definite can be announced.

The Silvie Olivia bass selling case was finally brought to a successful conclusion. Olivia was fined $500 by Judge Allen, who commented that Olivia should probably serve a jail sentence, but because this is the first time possession of illegal fish had been proved on him, he would let him off with a fine.

On November 8th, the Daly City Sportswomen served cake and coffee to the Junior Rod and Gun Club members and their fathers, for Father and Son night. Most of the cakes were made by members. The fathers and sons both go for those home made cakes.

HOW IT LOOKS FROM A CORNER

By BILL KATZ

Egyptian king Cheops who built the Great Pyramid about 3050 B.C. and "then felt better," to Miles Standish who came over on the Mayflower with a "shipful of ancestors, pewter plates and other antiques."

The true greatness of this satire on history's great is the ability of Cuppy to turn a name into a human being. In each of the characters we recognize some part of ourselves, or a friend or possibly an enemy. It might not be a bad idea to use this book as an additional text in the all too dry high school history classes. We're sure it would make every student realize that history can be as fascinating reading as the high school annual or a comic book.

Cuppy's book, which can be found at your Daly City Library, has a happy answer to women's rights: In an essay on Pericles, Cuppy notes: "The women of Athens were not very happy. They stayed at home and were not allowed to talk back. This has been called the Golden Age."

The Poor Kids

One of the few low blows in advertising ran rampant last week with full page ads advising all parents that their children will be "social outcasts" unless they have a T. V. set. The ad pictured two weeping children, evidently out of sorts because the old man was more concerned with bringing home the bacon than a receiver for some of the ham on T. V. Then there were a few words from a "prominent educator" telling parents they were cheating their children out of deserved happiness unless they rushed down to the local store and purchased a T. V. set.

This leads us to wonder what the poor kids of our generation ever did for amusement. Cheated out of the TV screen many of the unhappy kids had to resort to playing baseball and occasionally reading a book, or even sometimes studying. Some of the youngsters often developed a talent for conversation.

Denied the benefits of sitting quietly and watching TV, the kids had more time to raise h—— and generally get acquainted with their parents. It was strange, but few of them developed any ideas about being "social outcasts" . . . they were just too darn busy.

Oh well, the copy writer of that TV ad has a job, and he probably wrote the advertisement to buy a home in the country where he could take the kids on a holiday, far, far away from the blessings of TV.

Police Clean Up Two Local Crimes

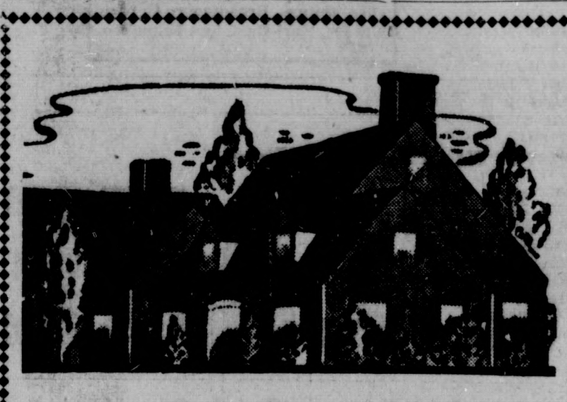
that an expensive saxophone and trumpet stolen from the store have been procured from the brother of one of the young burlgars. The brother had been given the instruments and then had moved to Sioux City. He was not implicated in the burglary, police said.

To date police have recovered almost all of the loot from the deLeon burglary including musical instruments and several radios.

CHECK WINDSHIELD WIPER

Now is the time to check on the condition of that windshield wiper, advises the National Automobile Club. With California's rainy season under way, you cannot afford to be caught out on the highways with a defective windshield wiper. A thorough check now will save dangerous driving later.



CASH FOR YOUR HOME

Regardless of condition or age of your home, we'll pay spot cash for it now! If you've considered selling, you'd better act now, while values are at their peak.

Westlake Church Holds First Dinner

The six week old Westlake Community Baptist Church had 62 of its newly organized members out to its first "Get Acquainted Dinner," last Friday night, Nov. 17, held in the spacious recreational room in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Small, 37 Cliffside Dr., Westlake, Daly City.

Excellent entertainment was brought by the string band of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, 66 Kempton, Daly City. Dr. Lewis J. Julianel, Minister of the First Baptist Church, San Francisco, brought the inspirational message, climaxing a most enjoyable evening.

The Church already has 12 Young People in its Young People's Choir, and plans are already being made for a Junior Choir to take care of the increasing number of 10 and 11 year olds.

The Building Committee has considered plans for the new building and it is believed that within the near future ground breaking for construction of the new building will take place.

Rev. Roy Milam, minister, is including a large young people's program to take care of the increasing number of young people attending the morning services, now being held in the Serra Theatre, Colma, until the Church building is completed.

Mrs. Fred Wettstein Is Appointed C. D. A. District Deputy

Grand Regent Mrs. Richard J. Ennis, Court St. Mary's, Catholic Daughters of America, Daly City, this week announced the appointment of Mrs. Fred J. Wettstein as District Deputy for the next two years.

Appointed by the state regent, Mrs. Wettstein will serve Court St. Francis No. 950, Court Infant of Prague No. 1389, and Court Juniper Serra No. 221 during 1950-1952. She is a past grand regent of Court St. Mary's.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

Complaints continue to come in to me in regard to the Cow Palace. The refuse left behind from the show, is breeding flies by the millions, and while trucks are hauling it away, some of the Rio Verde street neighbors observe the fact that it seems to be an unusually slow process. Housewives report that the killing of the flies in such numbers is bringing the ants into homes that are not ordinarily bothered with this particular form of pest, and are asking what can be done to correct the situation.

This complaint follows close on the heels of strong indignation over Rio Verde street being used as a speedway for vehicles using the rear gate of the Cow Palace, at Rio Verde and Partridge, and the number of heavy trucks going back and forth. Many asked one another why the rear gate on Geneva Ave. could not absorb at least a part of this traffic.

Many residents of the valley are looking for a way that this problem can be put before the proper authorities in such a way that it will show the fact that this is not one or two isolated cases of disgruntled home owners. I suggested that any interested parties might attend a meeting of the Improvement Club and discuss the matter in a large group, so that a letter can be written by the Club to the Cow Palace, asking them what if anything, they will do to relieve this annoyance.

Meetings

The Improvement Club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening, at eight o'clock, at the Sanitation Hall, at 2908 Geneva Ave. That is this Friday, Nov. 24.

The topic for the Sunday morning service at the Bayshore Baptist Church will be "New Testament Believers." The topic Sunday evening will be "Where Is Salvation?" The monthly Sunday School rally will also be held this Sunday, with special features in closing assembly. On Nov. 29, the church is having a special missionary prayer meeting, to which everyone is urged to attend.

Speaking of the church, many of us missed a really worthwhile musical program that they presented last Friday evening. Those who attended reported that the amount of musical talent we have in the church is much greater than many realize.

Cub Activities

Den Mothers and committees met with Mr. Earl Frank, Cubmaster, last week, for a prolonged discussion on Cub activities, in an attempt to lay out schedules whereby the boys could participate in more outdoor activities. Some committee members and fathers of the youngsters volunteered to oversee the boys on Saturday hikes and outings. A sight-seeing tour to the acquarium is scheduled for this Saturday as a beginning of the program. One Den Mother reported that her den had wanted to form a baseball team, but that she could not leave her home to oversee them because of small children of her own. If some of the fathers of Cubs could give a little time to these, it would be a definite step foreward for our Cubs.

Mary Ellen Dirk's Dad is here from Utah. When asked how long he planned to visit, Mary Ellen told us he was staying as long as his nerves held up. Kids will be kids Dad, and speaking from experience, being cooped up on these rainy days with husky, healthy youngsters, is not my favorite indoor sport. Hope you hold out for a while.

Father's Night

The Vanderbilt family, at 7 Tinian Road, are spending the Thanksgiving holiday and weekend with Mrs. Vanderbilt's parents, in Los Angeles. This will give them a chance to see son Jack, who was called into the marine corps, and is at present stationed at Camp Pendleton.

The Girl Scouts are at present conducting their annual calendar sale in the district. The calenders sell for thirty cents apiece. These calendars and the Girl Scout cookie sales, are the only two ways that our girls are allowed to raise money for their troops, so we urge that you buy a calender to help support the doings of the Girl Scouts.

Fathers Night PTA meeting, at the Bayshore Auditorium, was reported a success, even with the rain to keep people home. The program included a film of the East-West game, and the band filled in the spirit of the evening with college airs. The choral group also sang two numbers.

PTA Show

The Bayshore PTA sponsored a show for the school children last Tuesday, with five comic films. The kids really took to it, and everybody had a lot of fun.

This weekend is not a happy one for many ladies. The extra pounds that show up one way or another from that Thanksgiving dinner are enough to ruin anyone's disposition. On top of all that work, this is our reward. Oh well, maybe we can take them off before Xmas if we watch the potatoes. Speaking of Xmas, maybe we can massage those pounds off in the crowds of holiday shoppers.

CALIFORNIA RANKS FIRST

With a grand total of four hundred and forty-four thousand, California has a greater number of big game animals on her Federal forest lands than any other state in the Union, according to the National Automobile Club.

Jefferson High School Plays Host To 17th District CCPT Last Thursday

Jefferson Union High school was host to Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers on Thursday, November 16, in Daly City.

Greetings from Stanford Hannah, High school district superintendent, followed renewal of the pledge of allegiance led by Mrs. Robert Parrish of San Carlos, and a character thought read by Mrs. R. H. Pons of San Mateo, who later presented the entertainment.

Verne Hall of Sacramento, California Bureau of School District Organization field representative from Monterey county to Oregon, outlined the mechanics of redistricting procedure, which must be based on preliminary studies in the area involved. Questions from the floor brought out the details of committee personnel and other features.

Defined

Defined were union districts—two or more school districts working together within a county; joint districts combine similar schools in two counties; while unified districts are concerned with students from kindergarten through high school and/or junior college in a given locality. The speaker declared, "Forty-five of the forty-eight states think in terms of unified school districts."

Mr. Hall concluded, "Possible improved school services may be continuous health records, avoiding duplicate busses, attendance at the nearest school, more equitable distribution of the school dollar, and better coordination generally"

Fine File

An excellent file of statistical information in San Mateo county was complimented by Mr. Hall. A committee of nine members, which includes Mrs. Stella L. Jensen of Colma, past district PTA president, represents the 27 elementary, 6 high school and one junior college in preparing maps and data, and all interested citizens may cooperate with this group.

Public welfare director Mrs. J. B. O'Bryant of South San Francisco introduced the speaker and called on her department chairmen. Mrs. Robert Parrish of San Carlos, citizenship, Mrs. Warren Pingree of Menlo Park, legislation, and Mrs. Harry D. Gettins of Burlingame, international relations, spoke briefly.

Sports and Family

Recreation co-chairman Frank Gove of San Mateo gave desirable goals for family participation in sports and folk dancing, and recommended available films for PTA and community programs. Mrs. Owen Bradley, introduced by Mr. Gove, emphasized that students who learn conservation become the next generation's forest conservationists. Free colored slides for classes may be obtained from the Calaveras Grove association in Stockton.

Safety chairman Robert Moore of Redwood City announced dates for three safety conferences: south county at McKinley school in Redwood City on Tuesday, November 28, 10 a.m.; northern group 2 p.m. on Tuesday, November 28, at Edgemont school in San Bruno; and central area 10 a.m. Wednesday, November 29, at the San Mateo school office, 120 North Ellsworth avenue. County PTA and school safety chairmen or representatives are expected to attend one of these sessions.

Business Head

District president Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos directed the business, when resignations were accepted with regret from the registration and publicity co-chairman. Mrs. Sirex urges any PTA workers interested in publicity or editing the district newsette to contact her or other department members.

Jefferson High students entertained with a reading, "Cheerful Little Earful," arranged by Miss Eunice Seaton, drama instructor, and typical American band numbers directed by King Stevens of the music department.

Book Week

Book week theme, "Make friends With Books," was noted by Miss Clara B. Dills of Redwood City, county librarian and district home reading chairman, when she said, "People who learn to read don't get in trouble," an idea gleaned from her trip abroad this summer.

Committee named by Mrs. Sirex to arrange a tour of county schools included the Mesdames L. M. Hill of Daly City, Frank Garelick of Millbrae, Theodore Coffin of South San Francisco. Henry S. Ipsen of Redwood City, and Flora E. Steele of Pescadero. Honorary Life Memebership honorees will be selected by Mrs. Roland K. Abercrombie of San Mateo, Mrs. George Elliott of Pescadero, Mrs. John Sorensen of Daly City, and Mrs. Warren Pingree of Menlo Park.

White Gifts

An international relations project from Baywood PTA was explained by Mrs. Edward Trucco of San Mateo. Children are asked to bring usable garments for "White Gifts" at Christmas, but collections are made each month during the year to be sent to war orphanages in Switzerland through the Pestalozzi Foundation, Swiss Home Women's Workshop, in New York City.

Membership report was made by Mrs. Richard A. Andresen of San Mateo, who asked that per capita dues be sent promptly to enable the district president to win a special award from the State. Mrs. Winnie Lucas, principal of El Portal del Sol school in Millbrae, and parents of a handicapped student sent letters of appreciation for a loom provided by the district.

Transportation

Requests for transportation to district meetings are being channelled through Mrs. Erwin Schmidt of Daly City, reservations chairman, and her committee. Copies of the Flag Code and a Manual for Citizenship were distributed at unit roll call, and Mrs. J. M. Foley of San Mateo, district parliamentarian, told of free by-laws available to the units.

17th District CCPT Discusses Education Topics

Reports and discussion at the Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers executive board session on Monday, November 13, in Burlingame were evidence of the unlimited scope of PTA interests.

Represented by the president, Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos, and her co-workers, all agencies for education, child welfare and health in San Mateo county have had a district delegate.

Current committees include one on local PTA program awards headed by Mrs. Faun Tuska of Burlingame, assisted by Mrs. Harry Caplan of North Palo Alto and Mrs. Roy N. Cloud Jr. of Redwood City. A Peninsula UNESCO membership was voted to Mrs. Harry D. Gettins of Burlingame, international relations chairman.

Social Service

Social service is concerned with a movie produced by the county probation department. John S. Cowgill of San Carlos, chief probation officer and district advisory member, will show the film on request from any organization.

Conservation chairman Edwin Wiliman of Pescadero attended the dinner for Friends of California Redwoods and Sugarpines this week in San Mateo, as the district continues to exert pressure for the preservation of Butano forest park. Recreation chairman Mrs. Gregory Davis of San Mateo has also been active on the Butano project.

Highlights of the State Board of Managers meeting in Los Angeles told by Mrs. Sirex were varied. Karl Holton, director of California Youth Authority, believes terminology is important in dealing with young people. Holton, also a C.C.P.T. advisory board member, recommended that the juvenile court be called "Family and Children's Court" instead.

Other Topics

Other topics dealt with were school finance, minority group relations, and national defense. A National P-T statement was reviewed, and support given the defense program with minimum interruptions to family life and youth education.

State convention for 1951 is scheduled in San Diego May 2-3-4. Local presidents-elect should be official delegates by accepted State procedure, and in San Mateo county there will be more than 70 unit presidents next March. Ideas for building good attitudes in new associations were presented.

Between Trips

Between trips to the September and November State Board meetings Mrs. Sirex had attended eight local PTA programs, numerous departmental sessions, and two study groups weekly; audited the Mid-century Youth conference in Sacramento; participated in Peninsula UNESCO and district radio workshops; surveyed the Redwood City child care center and San Mateo sight saving class; appeared on a safety broadcast; and been the district delegate at Council of Social Agencies.

January district meeting at Pioneer Hotel in Woodside will open at 10 a.m., followed by the Press publicity luncheon. Locale for the February Founders day will be the Methodist church in Burlingame. District directors speaking Monday were the Mesdames Faun Tuska, H. P. Eder, and George Lee Camp of Burlingame, George Elliott of Pescadero, J. B. O'Bryant of South San Francisco, and J. M. Foley and M. G. Strohmeier of San Mateo.

CHURCH ALONE ESCAPES WAR'S DESOLATION —This picture illustrates the results of the deadly accuracy of the naval bombardment of enemy targets in the Pohang area. It was not touched.

TRUCK DRIVER VISION

You might spare yourself an accident, and you might understand the truck driver's predicament better, if you realized that few trucks offer the excellent visibility that now is given by the average passenger car, declares the National Automobile Club. The truck's huge body behind the driver's seat, its heavy pillars in the cab, and the high hood in front all tend to diminish visibility.

WESTLAKE WHIRL

by Marian Christians PLaza 5-0946

Captain Jerome J. Christian, 102 Wilshire Avenue, has returned from a tour of active duty at the Coronado Naval Amphibious Base.

Residents wish to thank the Westlake Association for getting up their shelter just prior to the bad weather.

All the people of Westlake wish to extend cordial wishes to the boys in the service on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Ellis Harvey is organizing a baby sitting club for Westlake families. A meeting will be called soon to make final plans for the service. Any persons interested in joining the club should call Mrs. Harvey at PI. 5-2805.

Canine keepers are seriously considering the organization of a Westlake Kennel Club. The idea was voiced recently by Mrs. Toni Cancilla, 158 Westlawn.

Clarence Gardner got a pleasant birthday surprise two weeks back when his wife and friends gave him a birthday party. Evalena Gardner and several out-of-state friends made his "day" a big success.

On the road back to health is Ray Baer, 7 Cliffside Drive, who is recovering from a major operation. Folks out Westlake way wish him a speedy return to normal.

If you want to drive safely you must know before you apply the brakes what the road surface is or your car is likely to skid and slide, advises the National Automobile Club. When a car skids never remove your foot abruptly from the accelerator nor apply the brakes. Turn you front wheels in the direction of the skid.

Local Auto Buyers Save On New Cars

Amidst the bad news of rising prices, Daly City and the Peninsula received some bright news this week.

As of February 30, 1951, new cars should cost around $30 less here as a result of freight reductions ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The retail price of a new automobile is set according to the cost of transporting the machine from the factory to the dealer. This amounts to about $250 on the low priced cars, and more on heavier machines.

The ICC, acting on equalizing competition among those manufacturers handling their product principally out of the factory cities and those maintaining assembly plants at various points in the country, reduced freight rates 12 per cent this week. On the average this will mean a $30 saving on a new car.

Sgt. Bolger Nominated To Police Group Board

Sgt. Bill Bolger of the Daly City Police department has been nominated for one of the three places on the Peninsula Police Officers' Association board of directors.

The nomination was made at a meeting of the San Mateo county group last Thursday night.

Sgt. Adolph Fernandez of San Bruno and Officer Carl Schwahn of Burlingame were nominated for president of the Association.

Telephone service is still a bargain...for since 1940, rates have gone up much less than the cost of living.

GOOD FRIEND OF THE FAMILY BUDGET

The telephone actually takes less of it than in 1940

1. Seems like the prices of most things you buy have about doubled, in the last ten years. Among the standout exceptions is your telephone service. There have been rate increases, of course, to help meet increased costs of furnishing service...higher wages, higher prices for materials, higher costs generally. But telephone rates have gone up far less than most other things. And that's only part of the story.

2. Telephone installers are making your service a better all-around bargain, too. When you buy a pound of something, you still get sixteen ounces...although the price may have doubled. Twelve items still make a dozen. But not so with telephone service. Your telephone dollars buy, on the average, twice as many available connections as ten years ago...for we've more than doubled the system in that time.

3. Today you can call more of the people you want to call...many more people can call you. And the calls you get are often more important than the calls you make. Yet average telephone rates have gone up less than half as much as the cost of living generally. They're up much less than our costs of providing service. It all comes down to this: Today telephone service can be purchased for fewer hours of work than in 1940. Your telephone is a mighty good friend of the family budget.

Alene Aviani, Charles Meyers To Be Wed Early In February

During the first week of February, there will be wedding bells for Alene Joan Aviani and Charles Walter Meyers, whose engagement was recently announced at a cocktail party held at the Fairmont Hotel by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Aviani of San Francisco.

Mr. Aviani is the well known Fisherman's Wharf restauranteur and is the proprietor of the Neptune Fish Grotto.

Alene was graduated from Lincoln High School, St. Joseph's College of Nursing, and is now studying at the University of San Francisco for her degree in public nursing.

For the past three years, Alene has been on the psychiatric nursing staff of the Langley-Porter Clinic.

The prospective benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Meyers of San Francisco. Mr. Meyers is also well known in the automotive industry of San Francisco and is the proprietor of the Super Auto Body Reconstructcion Company. Charles is a member of the California State Legislature, representing the 24th Assembly District at Sacramento.

He is presently in the insurance business. Assemblyman Meyers attended Sacred Heart High School, City College of San Francisco, and the University of San Francisco. After their marriage, the couple will live in San Francisco.

GRAND FALLS

Grand Falls, located southeast of Cameron on the Little Colorado River in Arizona, are reported by the National Automobile Club to be falls of great scenic beauty.

IT'S "CHESTY" HIMSELF—Col. Lewis Burwell Puller of the Marines—"Chesty" to his beloved Leathernecks—is pictured here as he led the First Regiment of the First U. S. Marine Division against the Communist Koreans at Yongdunpo for the capture of the capital city of Seoul. The camera caught the fighting colonel in battle trim just as he used to look in the old Banana wars and in the Jap-infested jungles of the South Pacific.

Col. Puller was born in West Point, Virginia, June 26, 1898. He attended Virginia Military Institute and in 1918 enlisted in the Marines. A year later he was enrolled as a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve and went on inactive duty, but only for one week. He re-enlisted in the Marines for duty as an officer in the Gendarmerie d'Haiti. In 1924 he returned to the United States and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marines. Then followed duty in many stations, including service as a major in the Nicaragua Guardia Nacionale, and subsequently in China commanded the famous Marine mounted detachment known as the "Horse Marines."

In World War II Col. Puller rejoined the First Marine Division in 1942 and won a second Gold Star in lieu of his third Navy Cross in the hard-fought struggle to defend Guadalcanal. He remained in the South Pacific and fought in its jungles until late in 1944, winning his third Gold Star and the Legion of Merit. He has been awarded many other decorations and medals.

Betty Sorentino Elected To Post

Betty Jean Sorentino today is the new president of the Business Girls' Guild of the Grace Presbyterian Church.

She was elected, along with other officers, at a regular meeting of the group Thursday evening, November 16 at the home of Dolores Schubert.

Other new officers include: Alma Becker, vice-president; Dolores Schubert, secretary; Florence Hannah, treasurer.

The rest of the evening was spent wrapping Christmas toys for the Indian mission at Hoopa, California. The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Rita Winter, served refreshments.

12 Million Xmas Seals Sent Out In San Mateo County

All of San Mateo County's 12,000,000 1950 Tuberculosis Christmas seals have now been delivered to homes throughout the county.

This was announced today by Seal Sale Chairman Bradford M. Melvin, who said that any persons who have not yet received their seals should contact the headquarters of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association in San Mateo.

Post Offices in the various cities of the county reported that a thin trickle of early Christmas mail is already decorated with the colorful Tuberculosis Christmas seals delivered earlier this week.

Headquarters of the seal sale, however, said today that the speed of remittances for Christmas seals already sent is now a matter of prime concern.

"The response within the next several days," Melvin declared, "will show whether or not it will be necessary for the Association's splendid corps of unpaid, volunteer workers to give a needlessly large amount of their time to a protracted seal sale campaign.

"This has been the case for the last several years when late remittances for the Christmas seals required all of these fine people to give extra time they could ill afford from their personal Christmas pleasure and activities.

"We are confident that the seal sale will be a success, but we are hopeful that our volunteers will not have to work any longer than is really necessary.

"We feel certain that everyone in San Mateo County understands that the purchase of Tuberculosis Christmas seals is the sole source of funds for the county's largest single battle against the most threatening of all diseases. We hope they will also understand that the value of each purchase of seals will be increased by the earliest possible forwarding of checks or remittances to the seal sale headquarters in the envelope inclosed with each mailing of the seals themselves."

First Aid Class To Open Soon

Pace of the First Aid Training Program in connection with Civil Defense is being accelerated in the San Mateo County Red Cross Chapter Area.

Announcement was made today by William T. Taylor, Chapter Chairman, that Pacific Area Red Cross has designated Joseph A. Aliamus of Burlingame and Harold Bellows, of San Mateo as Instructor Trainers to train First Aid teachers for this area. Aliamus and Bellows are two of the foremost men in this field on the entire Coast according to Area Officials.

Aliamus is Safety Service Chairman for the local American Red Cross and is well known on the Peninsula as Captain of the Rescue Squad of the Burlingame Fire Dept. and Instructor Trainer of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Emergency Squad. He also operates a Mobile First Aid Unit.

Aliamus will start a class for First Aid Instructors at the Red Cross Chapter House, 1449 Bellevue. Ave., Burlingame at 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 28th. There will be five, three hour sessions. Those holding current Advanced First Aid certificates are eligible, but must register ahead of time by calling Diamond 3-4561. Bellows, a volunteer Red Cross Instructor, has been an Instructor Trainer for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company since 1924. He recently attended a refresher course for instructors given by Earl Breon, from Nation Red Cross, Washington, D. C. Bellows will also conduct classes for instructors, dates to be announced later.

Colma PTA Plans Christmas Program Early Next Month

By MARJORIE HOPPER
President Colma PTA

Miss G. Cannon's room Grade 4 and Room 5 won the record this month for having the most parents present at the Colma PTA meeting.

Our panel discussion held on Wednesday, Nov. 1 was very helpful toward answering questions put by parents. Mr. James L. Snell, Supt., was in charge. Those participating were Miss Marie Traynor, Mrs. Hazel Colwell, Mr. Hugh Falconer, Mrs. Luhr, Mr. Frederick Hilger, Mr. Jerry Hopper and the President of the Colma PTA, Mrs. Marjorie Hopper.

A donation of $50.00 was presented to the James L. Snell unit to help them with their administration expenses. Mrs. Hugh Falconer President accepted for the unit.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Colma PTA is selling candy in the hall of the Jefferson Elementary and Thornton Rural School, Wednesday, Nov. 29, 12 noon to 1 p.m. This is part of their money raising project.

Mrs. Gertrude Stanghellini, Magazine Chairman, is busily working for her magazine points for the Colma PTA. If you have not subscribed to two very worth while magazines which help with the problems parents have who are raising children, call PLaza 5-3815.

Mrs. Wm. Hutchings, Membership Chairman, reports that we have 306 members to date. Keep up the good work.

Our first aid courses held each Tuesday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Colma Community Center are progressing under the capable Leadership of Officer Dean Wood.

Mrs. Stella L. Jensen, Mrs. Marjorie Hopper, President, and Mrs. Edw. J. Dennis attended the Seventeenth District Meeting held Thursday morning at the Jefferson Union High School. The program was inspirational and sent us home willing to get back to work.

Our Program Chairman and Christmas program chairman are busily setting up the Christmas program consisting of all student participation.

Our Parent Education group under the leadership of Miss Marie Traynor, met last Friday 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. in the Colma Community Center. Our topic of discussion was the "Emotional Child." You are welcome to come and take part in the discussions at any meeting. The attendance is very good.

Parents Can Both Cause And Correct Speech Defects

Parents may be both the cause and the correctors of their children's speech defects.

In many cases when there is not some actual physical deformity causing a speech defect, it is the unsuspecting parent who has fostered baby talk, stuttering, or an unwillingness to express himself, according to Dr. Lilse S. Hahn, assistant professor of spech on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

"Speech correctionists must counsel parents as well as children," Dr. Hahn said. "We must teach the parent to view his child's difficulty objectively, not emotionally. A child must have support in overcoming a problem, but to give this support a parent must know the limitations of the child's learning processes."

The U.C.L.A. speech expert pointed out that many speech difficulties are functional, having their basis in early childhood. Whoever is most influential in this early period can pattern the future speech development.

"Speech training has three goals," said Dr. Hahn. "First, to teach the person to make words in a mechanically accurate way; second, to give him a speaking situation in which he feels secure, so that he will build up enjoyment in speaking; third, to build in him a sense of personal worth so that he will be motivated to improve himself. None of these can be neglected."

Sadie Hawkins Day Birthday Party Held In Colma

A combination birthday party for Miss Alberta A. Stankus and "Sadie Hawkins" celebration had the rafters ringing in the Colma Community center last Saturday night.

The party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony A. Stankus, 856 87th street for their daughter, who is now 16-years-old. Although Miss Stankus passed the 16 year mark November 14, the party was held a few days later so her many invited guests wouldn't have to worry about going to classes at Jefferson High school the next morning.

Big Cake

Miss Stankus received many wonderful gifts and also managed to blow out all 16 candles on her large birthday cake.

Each of the 30 guests was sent an invitation that ran somewhat like this:

"Know all Daly City's Dogpatch men what ain't attached that Whereas there be inside our town limits, gals what craves to be, and Whereas it being only fitten that our Daly City's Dogpatch pappies and mammies get said womanhood off'n their hands, for one night at least . . . we hereby proclaims and decrees November 18 Sadie Hawkins Day."

Invited Guests

Those who attended the party included: Jean Eliasen, Lyn Notingham, Jackie Bordardi, Margie Duncan, Ann Allen, Bev Bendenilli, Janice Sproule, Shirley Rasor, Mabie Garabaldi, Joan DeVore, Carol Davis, Barbara Lind, JaAnne Van Fleek, Margaret Ratto.

VFW Post No. 9921 Dedicates Colors

Lake Merced Post 9921, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, had the honor to dedicate their Post Standard and rededicated themselves to the National Flag, at the Colonial Inn, Colma, California, Saturday evening, November 11, 1950.

District Commander Wetterstrom was ably assisted by the Vic Handerskin Post 3045, Los Gatos, California, drill team. Special mention should be made on the excellent performance of this drill team. They performed the ritualistic work of dedication of colors with the flawles precision of a well drilled squad of soldiers. The comrades of the Vic Handerkin Post can be proud of this newly organized drill team.

The Post colors were donated to the Post by contributions from local merchants and business people and individuals who take great pride in helping Veterans organizations succeed in their obligations to their fellow comrades and their many community projects to make this land of ours a better and healthier place to live. The Post salutes the following for their contribution towards the purchase of their colors:

Christmas Card Exhibit Shown Scout Troop No. 106

An interesting exhibit of religious Christmas cards and books, donated by a local Catholic gift store was presented to the Serra High School Mother's Auxiliary at a recent meeting held in the school auditorium.

They were artistically displayed before a shrine decorated with beautiful autumn flowers arranged by Mrs. Frank Helin of San Mateo. Mrs. Maurice McCormick, president of the Auxiliary, conducted the business session and appointed Mrs. Thomas Duffy as chairman of the Legion of Decency. In view of the fact that the Christmas Tour of Homes will be postponed this season, members appointed the board of directors to arrange for another project.

Guest Speaker

Mrs. LeRoy Gast, vice president and program chairman introduced Rev. Daniel McAlister, Catholic chaplain of the San Quentin Penintentiary, who, speaking on the five branches of the state prisons known as San Quentin, Folsom, Chino, Sullidad and Lancaster, gave an outline of how all prisoners are thoroughly checked and guided by a staff of Socialogists, Psychiatrists, chaplains, and vocation guidance people, who then place the prisoner in the branch prison best suited for him. Rev. McAlister stressed the fact that although prisoners are well treated they have lost their "Freedom" and that is most valued in our lives.

Refreshments were served by sophomore room mothers, Mesdames R. L. Griffiths, Fred Nelson, A. Wingell, C. M. Keyser, A. Cavallero, W. P. Bond, F. Shypertt, Bernard Reichmuth, J. Mooring.

Calif. Teacher Group Elects New Secretary

Mrs. Louise B. Gridley, teacher-counselor in Berkeley High School, was chosen Saturday, November 18, Executive Secretary of the Bay Section, California Teachers Association, by the CTA Bay Section Council, representing 15,000 teachers in the 13 counties comprising the Bay Section, Miss Elizabeth Corson, President, announced yesterday.

Mrs. Gridley will replace Dr. Wallace W. Hall, whose resignation was accepted by the Council because of his recent election to Marin County Superintendent of Schools.

Mrs. Gridley is a member of the California Teachers Association, State Board of Directors, and Chairman of the CTA State Committee on Teacher Retirement. She is also a member of the State Teachers Retirement Board.

In 1942 she was president of the Bay Section, and in the years following was National Education Association director from California. Her husband, the late Earl G. Gridley served, as secretary-treasurer of the Bay Section for 25 years prior to his death in 1946.

Dr. Hall's resignation becomes effective January 8. Formerly vice-president of the College of Marin, he was named to his present position in 1946. During his administration, the membership has increased from aproximately 11,000 to more than 15,000, and its program of services to the members greatly expanded.

The Council also considered legislative proposals to be submitted to the California Council of Education when it meets in Los Angeles, December 8-9, at which time the 1951 legislative program for the California Teachers Association will be specifically formulated.

Attending the meeting from Daly City were Viola Happy and Marjorie Reandeau.

$350 To Be Offered In Prizes For Yule Decorations in W'Lake Homes

350 Turn Out For Church Opening

Over 350 people turned out Sunday for the opening of the new Grace Presbyterian church building, Crocker and Winchester.

The Rev. William Harberts thanked his congregation for making possible the $75,000 sanctuary and fellowship hall, a project on which he had been working for seven years.

A note of special interest was the baptism of Candis Ethel Hodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hodge. Candis was the first child to be baptised in the new church, and in the fountain donated by her parents.

Another highlight of the services was a variety of songs sung by Miss Marion Walker, choir director.

Meanwhile, plans are progressing for the dedication of the new church December 17. At that time representatives of the local Presbytery and the state synod of California will be on hand to assist in the dedication ceremonies.

Not to be forgotten is the Thanksgiving service this Thursday, November 23. The public is cordially invited to attend the services which get underway at 10 a.m.

What the well-dressed home will wear at Westlake is expected to be the subject of considerable discussion during the coming Christmas season, as the result of a Christmas Home Decoration Contest involving a total of $350 in cash prizes.

Announcement of the contest, made by Henry Doelger, builder of the tract, stressed the fact that a winning home decoration will not necessarily need to be elaborate.

"Originality, interpretation of the Spirit of Christmas, and general attractiveness will be the main points on which the home decorations will be judged," he said.

The prizes will be: first place, $100; second place, $75; and third place, $50. The remaining $125 will be divided into smaller prizes, to be awarded to other Westlake homes which, in the opinion of the judges, merit recognition.

It is planed that an early announcement will be made regarding the selection of the personnel of the contest judges, the time and place of the award presentations, and other details of the contest.

"I am sure that everyone at Westlake will have a lot of fun seeing how the neighbors decorate their homes for Christmas," Doelger declared. "As for myself, I looking forward to the event immensely. One thing is certain: there will be a geat deal of originality displayed."

Nurses Badly Needed In Korea

Because of the urgent need for nurses, a campaign began last week to recruit 200 women under the auspices of all local hospitals, Kenneth Hobbs, director of nurses' training at San Francisco City College, announced recently.

In view of this, films have been sent to San Francisco City College and all students interested in nursing have been invited to attend open houses being held by several hospitals to give potential nurses an idea on how hospitals operate.

First on the list will be Mt. Zion followed by St. Francis Hospital. Dates will be announced later to the students.

Post-Thanksgiving Whist Slated November 27

The post-Thanksgiving Whist of Corpus Christi Parish will be held at 80 Santa Rosa Avenue on Monday evening, November 27, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Proceeds will benefit the building fund for a new Church and Youth Center, so urgently needed in the parish.

A varied choice of valuable and useful awards will be distributed to the patrons on this occasion, according to Mrs. Daniel J. Griffin, chairman of the committee.

Quail are very numerous in Fresno County at the present time, reports the National Automobile Club.

YOUR DALY CITY GARDEN CLUB NEWS

By ELSIE M. GARRISON

(Note: This column was written before the week of the rain. Any reference to the "good weather" is to be understood as the week beginning November 9 and ending November 16.)

A happy combination of circumstances has given the gardener in these parts considerable moral support as the fall season gets underway, and his plans are nearly complete for his spring garden and Christmas blooms as well.

Firstly, a note of genuine triumph was achieved by the comparatively little damage left by the terrifying hordes of cherubs, as they descended on the hapless householders All Hallows Eve. Most gardeners were only just getting over the glooms, which were precipitated by the "big blow," and the unhappy prospect of further damage by the local small fry, was just about too much to take. So it was a happy surprise to find that the most frightening collection of "characters" I have ever seen, proved to be the most mannerly, and flowers and shrubs, and the most common casualty, the potted plant, remained upright and intact, to the relief and thankfulness of the vigilant gardener.

No Accident

We all know, of course, that such a model situation was not an accident, and a good deal of credit is due the local authorities, who did such a good job in promoting parties and contests, in an endeavor to keep the mischief to a minimum. Perhaps it has been the gardener, who in times past has taken the brunt of the punishment, and his bitter deunciations well justified, as he surveyed the senseless destruction of uprooted trees, trampled flowers and torn foliage. These all represented time, work and money, and it is a heartening development to see the youngsters activities channeled in a reasonable and more progressive way.

The second circumstance was (need you ask?) the weather. Of course no one who is anyone ever talks about the weather, but if you will pardon this breach of the social code, I might point out that Daly City, basking in the flush of Indian summer is a very desirable spot, and the natives were taking advantage of it, to get in their fall bulbs and winter stock.

Most gardeners, imbued with the urge to get out and dig, rather outdid themselves, and the new year will probably see bigger and better gardens around here than in some time past. Daffodils of the King Alfred type are still the most popular, and the nurseries report a record sale of tulips, hyacinths and Chinese lilies.

Tulips

This year there have been two schools of thought on the planting of tulips, some adhering to the old procedure, and others convinced of the new deep-planting technique. Ranunculus is the favorite of those who enjoy a few cut flowers for vase or figurine, and the varieties seem bigger and more colorful every year. Lilies, and Iris in their many varieties will predominate many gardens without being anywhere near represented in full. Cellas, which are really not liiies at all, are a must in those heavenly shades of pink and yellow, which do so well in this climate.

A great idea for Christmas gifting, for the gardener, or the friends with the new home, would be that of a Camellia plant. It is the erroneous belief of some that Camellias are hard to grow, but that is not the case at all. The strains have been improved to a point where they will grow, almost at will, but care in choosing the right site, and providing humus and acid soil, will pay lavish dividends. In time, and with care the Camellia can become as treasured an heirloom as grandmothers sideboard, and infinitely more beautiful.

Pleasure

Members of the Daly City Garden Club were happy indeed to be afforded the pleasure and privilege of filling the bronze planters that repose in the window niches of the new and inspired Grace Presbyterian Church, at Crocker and Winchester sts. Its pastor, the Rev. Dr. Harberts, will conduct the initial service this coming Sunday.

At the Tuesday meeting of the D. C. Garden Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. Clair M. Yahn, the new officers for the coming year were duly installed. Conducting the ceremonies, was Mrs. H. Gordon Henningsen, and Mrs. Orrin Richards, both of the Oakland Garden Club, and officers of the California Garden Clubs, Inc. Corsages were presented to the guests, officers and chairmen for the coming year.

Progress

Mrs. Henningsen, who helped organize the club, ccomplimented the members and officers, on a year of progress, and disclosed that at the recent state convention, a full report of the Daly City Club was made as a model and outstanding group. Pictures of the National Forests, and native flowers of Hawaii were shown by Maurice McKee.

The table was set with yellow candlelebra and chrysanthemum, and centered with a beautiful birthday cake, a present of the hostess. Mrs. Julius Castelan and Myrtle Moore poured.

Many High School Libraries Are Poor

California's high schools—especially in rural areas—don't possess libraries to meet modern education's needs.

So write Byron H. Atkinson and Dr. Andrew H. Horn in a recent issue of the California Librarian.

Atkinson is Co-ordinator of Special Services on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, while Dr. Horn is in charge of the Library's Department of Special Collections.

They list three major problems of high school libraries:

1. A lack of uniformity in library practices among the state's high schools.
2. Inadequate financial support.
3. A scarcity of professionally trained library administrators.

Atkinson and Dr. Horn point out there is no law making libraries mandatory in California's 300 high schol districts. Some high school libraries are associated with the county library system, others are not.

They warn that "Ovid, Defoe, the Bible and supplementary secondary textbooks no longer constitute an adequate high school library."

They reveal that the high school librarian often serves as study hall director, classroom teacher, athletic coach and cafeteria manager.

BEAUTY News & Views

By TONI WOODWARD—ANS

THERE'S ROMANCE on hand this season in the exciting new perfumed nail lacquer. Romance, because beautiful hands are said to inspire love and perfumed nails add an even more beguiling note.

The creators of Dura-Gloss Nail Polish have glamorized a series of lacquers in lovely, Salon shades, with a subtle fragrance that lingers long in the memory. The 10 flattering shades range from palest pinks and colorless through a riot of reds from coral-toned to deep wine to harmonize with whatever costume shade you wear. (Although Dura-Gloss have 10 shades, they hesitated to guarantee your editor 10 romances.) The original nail grooming or a retouch job goes on effortlessly, thanks to a nylon brush, stays on for days. Perfumed Nail lacquer by Dura-Gloss is applied, it drys, the polish odor disappears and your fingertips exude an aroma that complements your all-over fastidiousness. And important, too, is the fact that this is the first perfumed nail lacquer to appear in an inexpensive version at a purse-coddling price of 25c a bottle! Spare hours in a dime store have proved to us again that they have everything, including a cosmetic counter that carries us off in a whirl of ecstasy on a buying spree to keep us busy beautifying ourselves for days.

Letter to the Editor

Resident Thanks Council For Nursery Decision

This letter is an expression of gratitude to Daly City's councilmen for two official actions recently taken by them—namely, the salvaging of the War Memorial Bldg. and the granting of a one year's use permit to the Toyland Nursery school.

Both of these actions deserve the highest of praise from citizens of Daly City. Both are concerned with the welfare of our children.

"Juvenile delinquency" is not just a catchword to be used by a person or groups of persons to gain their own ends, but it has been so used. That word "Juvenile" means your child or mine—the "Delinquency" comes from many lacks in a child's life such as no recreational facilities, not enough affection in the home, too much shifting about from neighbor to neighbor while mother and father both work . . . and a host of everyday people shake their heads and say "Big talk—little do."

Well, the Council is taking care of it to the best of their ability!

Rising building costs and government restrictions due to the world situation will not prevent the erection of our Memorial Bldg. Prompt and direct action by those five men is what prevented its happeneng!

Daly City will have its first and only State supervised Nursery school for at least a year's trial period. That we will have such a school is due to the fine temporizing action of the council.

Sincerely,
JANE KEITH

Never forget that shower curtains are victims of splashes and soap suds, so need laundering regularly to stay sweet and clean. Right in the bath tub is the best place to wash them. Then hang them back on the shower bar, spread out, to dry.

When grapefruits you've bought aren't quite as sweet as you'd like, try broiling them. Spread each half with honey, then dot with vitaminized margarine, sprinkle with a little cinnamon and broil until tops are lightly browned. A maraschino cherry set on top makes a bright finishing touch.

Cut steel wool soap pads into small pieces — enough for one or two dish washings, after which each can be thrown away. This system eliminates useless, rusty pads. You'll find your supply lasts longer, too.

Wonderful Left Hand Of Square Dance Marie

By Ridgely Cummings

This is a piece about the remarkable left hand of Square Dance Marie and coincidentally a few words about the growth of folk dancing in the western U. S., particularly Arizona.

Folk dancing seems to be gaining adherents all over the nation. In San Francisco there are a score of groups meeting weekly. I used to be an occasional attendant at the Carousel Club's gatherings in the German-American Hall on Polk street and usually enjoyed a good time and more exercise than a man of my sedentary habits could profitably use.

In Arizona the devotees seem to generate even more enthusiasm than their California brethren. Like ripples from a stone thrown in a pond, the fad is spreading all over the state from a second floor hall in downtown Phoenix.

"MOM" THROWS STONES

Name of this vortex is City Recreation Hall. I went there the other night and found that chief among the stone throwers who are spreading the ripples are "Mom" and Marie.

"Mom" is Viola "Mom" Ruth and Marie Ruth is her daughter. Mom plays the violin with a sure touch, having held the state square dance championship from 1926 to 1948, when she retired undefeated. Marie is a tall, blonde pianist who has accompanied her mother since she was eleven years old.

Marie's left hand is probably the best in the profession. The way she thumps out the bass is a treat even for the initiated like myself. The boom-boom from the downhill side of the piano fascinated me, hypnotized me and drew me from the sidelines right up to the stage, where I took an inconspicuous seat by the Steinway and got a behind-the-scenes view of what was going on.

What was going on was a class in square dance calling.

SWING YOUR OWN

The caller is the person who tells the sets and couples what to do—promenade, docey-do, allemande left, swing your partner, and so forth. Callers used to be elderly gentlemen who learned the technique from their grandfathers but now, out of this class, will come men and women who will go back to their respective communities as experts, able to guide the dancers through the rhythmical routies.

The women callers and dancers wore cotton dresses with low-cut necks and flared skirts that whirled waist high on the turns. The men mostly wore levis and riding boots.

A chap named Fred who also sat on the stage (he had a better reason, taking care of the loud speaker system) told me that riding boots are not a must for dancing and calling but that they help considerably.

BULL DOGGING HEELS

He said the boots come with three kinds of heels—dogging, walking and all purpose—and identified each kind as a new caller took over the microphone. From the condition of the boots and the type of heels, Fred could tell pretty well if the chap was a rancher, a cow hand or just a clerk dressed up for the occasion.

The contrast between the old west and the new, riding boots and microphones, tickled me but the thing I liked best was Marie's left hand.

The fingers were long, splayed and powerful. The hand easily spaned an octave and a half, was strong and sinewy and jumped around the keys with a life all its own. It was bigger than my own right hand and they used to call me ham-hand Cummings when I played football.

We measured Marie's hand against mine, her boy friend Harry observing me closely all the while to make sure my interest was strictly journalistic.

Once I heard Alexander Brailowsky play his way through Chopin and Beethoven and I'll always remember it! but for real, deep down enjoyment as the radio announcer says, give me Square Dance Marie's left hand bass as she romps her way through "Arizona Star" or "Roundup Time in Texas."

That girl is a caution.

Dr. Fisk To Speak On Europe At SMJC

Authoritative commentary on Spain and Portugal will be the subject of guest lecturer Dr. Alfred Fisk when he addresses a gathering at Community Hall on the Baldwin campus, San Mateo Junior College, Monday, November 27.

The San Francisco State college professor visited the European countries last summer and he will show color slides of his travels.

The program begins at 7:30 and there is no admission charge.

Meanwhile, the college's forthcoming term play, "The Male Animal," is progressing rapidly in the rehearsal stage. Director Richard Marsh has the cast well along, while Sam Dolph and the student technical staff are at work on the sets. The play will be given three evenings in December.

The decorative tulips that make this one of the prettiest blouses to greet the suit season are not just flower appliques. They are real pockets, with all-over red stitching to match the collar. The fabric is Stonecutter's tissue faille of Celanese rayon, lovely enough to top one's most important skirt, and wonderful to wear with any career suit that frequently goes to business or club meetings.

Cub Pack No. 62 Plans Xmas Party For December 15

By D. C. GENSEL

A Christmas party for Cub Pack 62 will be held at the Bellevue Recreation hall Friday evening, December 15. The party will be sponsored by the parents of Cub Pack members.

Each boy who attends is requested to furnish a wrapped gift (cost not to exceed 25 cents) so that every one present may exchange presents. Refreshments will be furnished by the parents' club.

It is to be noted that during December the Cub Pack, outside of the Christmas party, will hold no regular meeting.

Committee meet

Meanwhile, there will be a special committee meeting Wednesday, November 29 at 8 p.m. at 188 Acton street. All members of the committee, as well as parents of the boys, are urged to attend. Final arrangements for the Christmas party will be made at this meeting.

Cub-Master Doug Baughn is back with boys this week after spending some time in the hospital. Baughn will conduct an inspection of the boys at each pack meeting over the next weeks. He will present the den with the best score an honor flag. When a den wins this flag for three consecutive meetings, they will automatically keep the flag.

Dens should watch for: badges sewed on correctly, teeth clean, fingernails clean, hair combed, shoes shined and overall cleanliness.

Also it is expected to have some kind of point system worked out for parents and boys attendance at the regular monthly pack meetings and boys attendance at weekly den meetings.

New Octupi "At Home" In Steinhart Aquarium

Three giant octopuses are now "at home" to visitors at Steinhart Aquarium in Golden Gate Park in San Francisco.

The new tank was displayed to civic officials, members of the Board of the California Academy of Sciences, and distinguished visitors last week. Refrigeration for the new tank was donated to Steinhart Aquarium by the Leslie Salt Co. and the octopuses were acquired by the academy from S. Gianina, an octopus fisherman at Monterey.

Supplying Ships Is Big Business

Business with more than 100 ships within 10 days was the record of the fleet issue supply ship, USS POLLUX, after leaving the Naval Supply Center, Oakland, Calif., it has been announced by Rear Admiral Murrey L. Royar, SC, USN, Center commanding officer.

"This total of ships serviced becomes more revealing when it is realized the amount is more than one-fourth of the total of ships operating in the Korean action," Admiral Royar said today. "Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy, commander of the Naval Forces Far East, estimated that the United Nations had 400 ships in those waters. Interviewed in Tokyo, Admiral Joy listed ships from England, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Republic of Korea, Canada, The Nethlands and the United States."

The huge carriers, Boxer and Philippine Sea, numerous destroyers, repair vessels, tankers oilers, cargo ships, reefers, mine sweepers, small 700 ton patrol craft and harbor tugs are on the list of purchasers from the 14,000 ton "floating department store—the USS POLLUX," Admiral Royar pointed out.

"Admiral Joy estimated the tonnage under his command would exceed one million tons," Admiral Royar continued. "The parts, hardware, and supplies, in addition to the requirements of the men manning the ships, create a tremendous job of supply over possibly the longest supply route ever maintained in naval warfare.

"In speaking of this problem, Admiral Joy stated that 'the number and variety of ships we have in this operation gives us a mobile striking force of tremendous power . . . the kind that proved so effective in laying the invasion track across the Pacific in World War II. The landing at Inchon was a sample of what can be done with these ships. They are capable of transporting more than 100,000 men . . . and they're backed up with the planes and fire support to protect such a movement.'"

Many of the ships in the Pacific armada were outfitted and equipped at the Oakland Naval Supply Center, Admiral Royar emphasized. The supply lines have been kept fluid and open by the use of such workers as the POLLUX and the many cargo, transport, ammunition, reefer and other types of auxiliary vessels.

"The Tokyo interview revealed that during the two weeks following the landings at Inchon, the Navy unloaded a ton of food, ammunition and equipment for every man put ashore," Admiral Royar said. "There was an average of one vehicle, jeep, truck, tank or staff car—for every four men. A mountain of supplies and materials were put down ranging from 3,000 miles of telephone wire to three million water purefying tablets. The planning job that was done by the unified command was figured down to the last decimal. It's that kind of planning—plus home front production—and most important—plus the will of free people to remain free that is speeding our actions in Korea."

The USS POLLUX left Oakland with supplies estimated to last 40,000 men for 90 days. Medical stores aboard included everything needed by 100,000 men for 30 days. From 1300 to 1400 items were included in the medical cargo. The POLLUX carried a list of more than 7,500 separate items.

"The POLLUX operation pin points the tremendous load carried at the Supply Center during the summer months," Admiral Royar stated. "During the month of August, 25 ships sailed from our piers. That was one ship less than the all-time record established in January, 1945, before the close of the Pacific phase of World War II. Activation of 11 MSTS ships resulted in 4,259 requisitions calling for 44,033 line items to equip those ships during August. Our Aviation Supply Depot reached a peak of activity in July when the allowance lists for such large carriers as the USS BOXER and the USS PHILIPPINE SEA and aviation supplies for the USS JUPITER were drawn from the Center. Increased activity in the Pacific Ocean Area resulted in an overall increase of our load amounting to 432 per cent above normal."

The POLLUX operation was welcomed by the Pacific fleet. Many of the ships had not replenished general stores for as long as four months. Before the supply ship had a chance to "drop the hook," messages streamed in from waiting ships. The communications division of the POLLUX handled more than 100 messages the first day of operations. At one time representatives of 17 ships were aboard the POLLUX with requisitions for supplies.

Natural Gas Development Told

An estimated 6 trillion cubic feet of natural gas were taken out of the ground in the United States during 1949.

This impressive figure points to "one of the outstanding developments in the fuel and energy economy of the United States in recent years," the emergence of natural gas in the market long dominated by coal and petroleum.

This development is described in a recent article on the geography of natural gas in the U.S. by James J. Parsons, assistant professor of geography on the Berkeley campus of the University of California.

"The time may not be far distant," Professor Parsons points out, "when production of natural gas in the United States will be more important than production of oil." It is not widely realized, he continues, "that in equivalent heat units the proved and recoverable reserves of natural gas exceed proved petroleum reserves by a substantial margin."

A measure of the tremendous recent development in the use of natural gas is indicated by the increase in pipeline operation. The first long-distance lines from Texas to the Middle West were placed in operation in 1930 and developments since then have been rapid. Natural gas pipe lines in the United States have now reached the impressive total of 260,000 miles, more than the point-to-point mileage of the railroads and two and one-half times the crude oil pipe line mileage.

Another indication of the trend Professor Parsons outlines is shown by the fact that while marketed production of natural gas increased 12 per cent in 1949 over the preceeding year, output of crude oil decreased 8 per cent and production of coal declined 28 per cent.

Construction Laborers Get 10-Cent Increase

Over 30,000 construction laborers in San Mateo county and northern California received a 10-cent across-the-board pay increase Monday.

Charles Benton, head of AFL Laborers Local No. 389, said the new scale will be effective until May, 1951. This raises the hourly pay of laborers to $1.65, with corresponding increases in the skilled classifications under the laborer's jurisdiction.

HELICOPTER TRANSPORT—Transport companies equipped with helicopters designed for Army combat operations and logistical support are being organized for use in corps, divisions and smaller tactical units. Each company will be equipped with 23 helicopters, the Army has announced.

Helicopter-equipped companies, it is anticipated, will facilitate river crossings and special types of operations which may be required for arctic, amphibious, mountain and jungle warfare where movement of vehicles on the ground can be extremely difficult. The use of these aircraft for air transport in the field of small unit tactics will also open new concepts of operations in ground combat since they will afford greater mobility behind our front lines in the combat zone.

ARMY UTILIZING SMALL BUSINESSES—Small business concerns and manufacturing firms in "distressed" areas are furnishing much of the material and equipment which the Army is procuring in increasing quantities as a result of the Korean situation, Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, Jr., announced.

Available data for July, first month of the conflict, indicate that small businesses received orders from the Army for more than $33,000,000 worth of material, and that contracts approximating $1,700,000 were placed in currently designated distressed areas. Later figures are not yet available.

In fiscal year 1950, small business concerns obtained from the Army more than 746,000 contracts totaling $800,000,000. These figures, Secretary Pace said, represent 74.1 per cent of the contracts and 40.6 per cent of the dollar value of contracts placed with both large and small business concerns. Pointing out that present plans for fiscal year 1951 call for Army procurement four or five times greater than the $2 billion rate of 1950, he said that every effort is being and will be made to insure that small firms get a proportionate share of Army business.

WOUNDED CHAPLAIN—Lieut. Comdr. (Chaplain) Orlando Ingvolstad, USN, who early in the Korean conflict conducted burial services in the U. S. Military Cemetery at Masan, was wounded by a shell fragment while serving with advancing Marine units at Inchon. A native of Marshalltown, Iowa, he was a clergyman of the Evangelical Lutheran church before entering the Navy in 1942.

Two other Navy chaplains were reported wounded on the Korean battle front. They are: Lieut. William G. Tennant, of Fallbrook, California, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church at Williamette, Washington, who was injured by a mortar shell while attending a wounded Marine under enemy fire, and Lieut. Robert A. Bonner, of Collingswood, New Jersey, wounded by a land mine. He was a clergyman of the Bible Presbyterian Church and entered the Navy in 1944.

NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENT B, C AND D STREETS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 8th day of November, 1950, the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, California, adopted its Resolution of Intention No. 5160 wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest and convenience required, and that it was the intention of said Board to order the following improvements to be made in said County, to-wit:

(a) The improving of "B" Street from a point opposite the easterly line of Lot 41, Block 31, Boulevard Park, to El Camino Real by grading and constructing therein concrete curbs, gutters and sidewalks, asphaltic concrete surface pavement on crusher-run base pavement, catch basins and sanitary sewer laterals to vacant lots, and all work auxiliary thereto necessary to carry out same.

(b) The improving of "C" Street from a point opposite the easterly line of Lot 31, Block 32, Boulevard Park, to El Camino Real by grading and constructing therein concrete curbs, gutters and sidewalks along the full length of the northerly side, curbs, gutters and sidewalks for 400 feet along the easterly portion of the southerly side and curbs and gutters along the balance of the southerly side, asphaltic concrete surface pavement on crusher-run base pavement over the full length and sanitary sewer laterals to vacant lots, and all work auxiliary thereto necessary to carry out same.

(c) The improving of "D" Street from a point opposite the easterly line of Lot 29, Block 33, Boulevard Park, to El Camino Real by grading and constructing therein concrete curbs, gutters, sidewalks and asphaltic concrete surface pavement on crusher-run base pavement over the easterly 450 feet; a reinforced concrete stairway from the end of the paved portion to El Camino Real, together with a storm drain and catch basins and sanitary sewer laterals to vacant lots and all work auxiliary thereto necessary to carry out same.

All of said work and improvements are to be constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications adopted therefor by said Board and on file for public inspection at the office of the County Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvement will bring the finished work to a grade different from that formerly existing, and that to said extent said grades are hereby changed and that said work will be done to said changed grades.

Said Board has determined that said contemplated improvements are of more than local or ordinary public benefit and has made the costs thereof, and the expenses incidental thereto, chargeable upon an assessment district determined by it to be the district benefited by said improvements and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, the exterior boundaries of which are the coterminous exterior boundaries of the composite and consolidate area consisting of Lots 41 thru 48, and portion of Lot 69, Block 31, Lots 31 thru 38, Lots 43 thru 46, and portion of Lot 55, Block 32, portion of Lots 1 and 9, Lots 10 thru 12, Lots 25 thru 32, Lots 41 thru 48, and portion of Lot 8, Block 33, Lots 13 thru 28, Block 34, in Map of Boulevard Park, and Lots 11 thru 15, Block 31, portion of Lot 1, Lots 2 thru 7, Lots 9, 10 and 12, Block 32, Lots 3, 4, 5, 10 and 11 Block 33, and portion of Lot 1, and the whole of Lot 2, Block 34, in Map of the Lands of the City Extension Homestead Association.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments, and bear interest at the rate of not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided by Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Act of 1911, and the last installment of such bonds shall mature nine (9) years from the second day of January next succeeding the 15th day of October following their date. Said bonds shall be made payable to bearer and provide a premium on call of 5% on the unpaid principal.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, said work shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, as amended.

Notice is further given that the Engineer of Work of said County pursuant to said Act and said Resolution of Intention adopted pursuant thereto, did, on the 8th day of November, 1950, file with the County Clerk his report in writing, consisting of a written report generally describing the proposed improvements to be made hereunder, and having attached thereto plans, profiles, specifications, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, filed with the County Clerk as parts of said report, and that said Board on said date consider and examine said report and by resolution preliminarily approved and confirmed said report and said estimate, and ordered that said report and said estimate stand as the report for the purposes of all subsequent proceedings had pursuant to said Resolution of Intention.

The estimated cost of said improvements is approximately $31,556.50.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that Tuesday, the 19th day of December, 1950, at ten o'clock A. M. in the Board of Supervisors Room, Court House, Redwood City, California, is the time and place appointed and fixed by said Board for hearing protests in relation to said proposed improvements, and that any person interested, objecting to said proposed improvements or to the grades at which said work will be done, or to the extent of the assessment district, or to the engineer's estimate of the costs and expenses thereof, or to the proposed diagram and assessment for the costs and expenses thereof, may file a written protest with the County Clerk at or before the time set for the hearing referred to herein.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Intention and said report for a more particular description of said improvements, and for further particulars, all on file in the office of the County Clerk.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS OR BIDS B, C AND D STREETS

Pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, as amended, and Resolution of Intention No. 5160 adopted thereunder on November 8, 1950, by the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County, and the resolution directing this notice adopted on November 8, 1950, said Board hereby invites sealed proposals or bids for the construction of crusher-run base asphalt concrete wearing surface, concrete curbs, gutters, sidewalks, sanitary sewer laterals, storm drains, catch basins and stairway, in said County, all as more particularly described in said Resolution of Intention.

All of said work is to be done at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes and dimensions and of the materials, and to the lines and grades and at the elevations as shown and delineated upon the plans, profiles and specifications made therefor and preliminarily approved by said Board on November 8, 1950, and on file in the office of the County Clerk, pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, to which reference is hereby made for a full description of the work to be done and for further particulars.

Attention is called to the fact that the first payment will not be made until 90 days after commencement of work, if funds for such payment are not available, and the balance thereof will be paid thirty-five days after completion of said work and acceptance by the Engineer of Work and said Board.

Notice is hereby given that on November 8, 1950, the Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wage to be paid to various craftsmen and laborers required to construct said improvements in and for said County a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for a full and detailed statement thereof.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a certified check payable to the order of the County, amounting to ten per cent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to the said County, signed by a corporate surety, or by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said County in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within fifteen days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the County, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in the amount of 50% of the amount so bid, with sureties satisfactory to said Board, and which shall be accompanied by a labor and material bond in a sum equal to 50% of the amount of said bid, under the provisions of Title 1, Division 5, Chapter 3 of the Government Code.

Said sealed proposals shall be delivered to the County Clerk of said County on or before ten o'clock A. M. of Tuesday, the 19th day of December, 1950, at the regular meeting place of said Board, Supervisors Room, Court House, Redwood City, California, said time being at least ten days from the time of the publication of this notice. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour.

Copies of plans and specifications and bid sheets may be obtained from the office of Edwin H. Smith, Engineer of Work, Chestnut and Spring Streets, Redwood City, California. A deposit of $10.00 per set of plans and specifications is required as a guarantee that they will be returned to him in good condition not later than forty-eight hours after bids have been publicly opened.

Dated November 10, 1950.

Daly City Man Fractures Back In Freeing Bumpers

Proving even a mild jump can be dangerous, Wilbur Stafford, 50, 299 Hillside boulevard, is in St. Francis Hospital today recovering from a fractured vertebrae.

He suffered the injury in a freak accident the evening of November 10 at the intersection of Columbus avenue and Filbert in San Francisco. Stafford's car had stalled and an obliging truck driver gave his a shove with his machine.

In the process the bumper of the truck locked with the rear bumper of Stafford's car. Like many another driver the San Francisco waiter proceded to jump up and down on the bumpers to free them.

An hour later Stafford was in the hospital. One of the jumps had fractured his vertebrae. He hopes to be home sometime late this week.

SIGN OF THE TIMES

A course in atomic warfare and radiology will soon be offered as part of the fire college training at City College of San Francisco according to a recent statement by Michael Lo Presti, fire college coordinator.

The course will be modeled after the one now being given at Treasure sland.

Many Vacancies In The U. S. Navy

Applications are desired from enlisted women of the Naval Reserve for recall to active duty for an obligated period of one year.

Enlisted women desired for active duty are as follows:

All reserve classes in pay grades E-4 through E-7 petty oficers third class through chief petty officer) in general and emergency service ratings in the following ratings only: Teleman, radioman, communications technicians, yeoman, personnelman, machine accountant, storekeeper, disbursing storekeeper, aerographer, tradevman, aviation storekeper, hospitalman, and dental techinician. Applicants must have at least one year obligated service. Those with less than one year obligated service may extend their enlistments.

Young men—if you're a high school graduate, the navy assures you at time of enlistment of attending one of the many vocational schools upon completion of recruit training. In addition of basic training and airmen training there are over 30 other schools available. Now high school graduates are also eligible to attend any of the training schools. However, they are selected for the schools on a competitive basis at the navy training center, San Diego, as a result of the marks which they make on a second classification test.

Investigate these opportunities today: Your navy recruiting station is located in the post office building in San Mateo. Phone Diamond 4-2781.

Bids To Be Called For Resurfacing JS

Bids for the resurfacing of Junipero Serra boulevard from the San Mateo county line south to Edgemar street in Colma will be called for within the next week.

Dr. Johnson, Joint Highway District No. 10 official, made this announcement today. He did not specify an exact date for calling for bids, but he said it would be "soon."

The Highway District announced that they would resurface the boulevard several months ago. However, due to the need for planning plus the bad weather has held up the call for bids.

Scouts Plan Round Table Talk

It was announced at the November 14 meeting of Cub Pack 36 that there will be a round table discussion of the Lake Merced District Scout personnel, at the Lady of Our Savior church, in the near future.

All parents and scout leaders are asked to be present to join in the discussion. Dr. Finley also announced that Pack 36 will be asked to conduct one of these round table discussions soon, and suggested that leaders and den mothers be prepared to make it as interesting as possible.

Report Given

A report on the Stanford-USC football game attendance wasn't as gratifying as usual. The crowd was not as large as expected and many who had indicated a wish to go, did not show up at departure time, with the result that the chartered busses weren't filled. This is discouraging to the people who work hard to arrange these affairs for the cubs, and it is hoped that there will be a larger turn out next time.

The November 28th meeting will feature a skit and probably movies.

The meeting scheduled for December 12th, has been moved up to December 5th, due to other plans at that time for Saint Francis church. This will be award and graduation night for the elevent year old cubs, who will be going on into scouting or other organizations.

NAVAL BOMBARDMENT OF KOREAN COAST—While American GIs, South Koreans and a battalion of British soldiers struggled in the rough terrain to hold the menaced perimeter for the United Nations, Communist lines were blasted from the skies and from naval vessels off shore. Here a salvo has just been fired from the 8-inch guns in No. 3 turret of a U. S. cruiser off the east coast of Korea.

Public Invited To Attend Crocker PTA Bazaar Dec. 1

The annual bazaar and main money-raising event of the Crocker Parent-Teacher Association will be held Friday, December 1, at the Masonic Hall, in Daly City.

Mrs. Carl Berg, president of the association, and her chairman proclaim this to be an event well worth waiting for, as great activity in the sewing circles and other interested departments indicate that there will be a great selection of hand made aprons, lines and sundry items of needlework.

Among the more interesting events during the day of the Bazaar will be luncheon. Serving will begin at 11:30 a.m., continuing through the noon hours. No reservations are necessary for the luncheon, and we are promised most nominal prices.

Everyone is invited to visit the displays and meet their friends. Doors open at 10 a.m. and when you are shopping in Daly City, don't forget to go up and look in on the Crocker Parent-Teacher Association Annual Bazaar. Funds raised during this event are for the best causes, Student Aid, both local and county, and other fields that benefit children directly and indirectly.

The Crocker Parent-Teacher Association Executive Board will hold its next meeting November 28 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Falconer, 103 Village Lane, Garden Village. Mrs. James Snell will be co-chairman with Mr. Falconer for the meeting, and plans for the annual Bazaar will be discussed along with other important business on the agenda.

Mrs. Berg and Mrs. John Sorensen, her co-worker, attended the Seventeenth District Meeting that was held last Thursday, Nov. 16, at the Jefferson Union High school.

SF MAN FINED $125 FOR DRUNK DRIVING

Pleading guilty to drunk driving, Donald Dixon, 903 Victory avenue, San Francisco, paid a fine of $125 in Daly City's police court Friday.

The San Francisco man was picked up November 13 at the intersection of Junipero Serra boulevard and Highway No. 1. He was driving in what police described as an "erratic" manner.

In addition to the fine Judge W. J. Sweeney revoked Dixon's drivers license for 90 days.

Richard Ryan, Janet Williams First To Be Wed In New Presbyterian Church

In the new Grace Presbyterian church last Sunday Richard C. Ryan of the local bachelors contingent bestowed his name on Janet B. Williams. They were the first couple to be married in the new church.

The bride was gowned in white satin and wore a short veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and white bouvardia.

Matron-of-Honor

Janet's matron-of-honor was Dorothy Smyser who chose a gown of green satin. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

Maxine and Merilee Faulk acted as the two candle bearers.

Mrs. Frank Williams of Stockton, mother of the bride, wore a cream satin dress with black accessories. Mrs. George Ryan, 880 Templeton, mother of the groom, wore a teal dress and black accessories.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at 21 Alexander. Some 50 friends of the bride and groom were present.

After their honeymon in southern California, the newlyweds will take up residence at 800 Templeton.

Palo Alto Stuns Jeff Title Hopes, 21-0

OFF THE RECORD

By Roy Hurlbert

VIKINGS ARE SUPREME

Now it can be told. The Palo Alto Vikings outmudded Jefferson last Friday and there will be no championship for the local eleven. All they can hope for now at the most is a tie for the PAL crown. This is a remote possibility.

At least, the Indians are the best second place team in the league.

Palo Alto shouldn't lose either of two more games. The Vikings meet Sequoia in Redwood City tomorrow and finish up at home against San Mateo. Neither the upcoming Cherokees nor the Bearcats have the tools of upset. It could happen, but we won't bet on it.

But Jefferson didn't have it when it counted. They made mistakes like a second division team. And you don't make mistakes against a good team.

They have everything. Balance, great speed, and depth in quality.

Conditions favored the Indians if they helped anybody. Sloppy going hurts a passing and breakaway team. But Palo Alto came up with a near-perfect performance even in the hardest of circumstances.

That's the mark of a great team.

We shudder even to suggest an answer. Let it be said that a sprinter is even faster on a dry track.

Several times, Bob Pederson, sparkling Viking quarterback, sent his scatbacks on end runs. They got there in a hurry, had plenty of interference, and except for the footing would have been off to paydirt.

Wonder how fast they would fly under normal weather conditions.

Jefferson's bulgy line didn't shove the lighter Vikings around, either. The Palo Alto forwards opened up as many holes as the Indians did.

Pederson didn't get much chance to pass, but his few tosses were well executed.

We now know why nobody has even come close to stopping the Palo Altans. You have to move plenty fast to roll up scores like the Vikings have.

Jim Farrell, Dale Hendrickson and Loren Sorenson are the finest trio of backs we have seen in a long time.

It's going to be pretty difficult to keep most of the Vikings off of the All-PAL team.

Pederson, for certain, and Farrell, beyond doubt, will get unanimous support. Bob McDowell, center, and end Merle Flattley are other candidates.

Our intention isn't to discredit the effort of Glenn South's boys They were fighting to the end and it hurt to lose.

But they konw they went down honorably.

Nobody figures to stop this Palo Alto club which Coach Hod Ray has molded into a terrific aggregation, in this, his 30th year at Paly.

Jefferson chieftan South feels his boys had nothing to be sorry about. Sure they'd like a rematch, but they lost to a real champ.

Those 21 points were deserving and indicative.

P.A.L. HISTORY

One thing for certain, Jefferson and Palo Alto were in the same boat last week. We're not alluding to their mutual need of a ship on that lake of mud, either. We mean to say that both schools came into the contest with high ideals.

Jefferson has never won a league championship to our knowledge and the Vikings' only command performance was in 1941 when they shared the gonfalon with Burlingame.

Dode Winslow, prep sports editor of the Palo Alto Times supplied us with some needed background on past PAL grid campaigns. The loop as we now recognize it got started in 1933. Willow Glen is the ninth entry this season.

Since then, Burlingame, Sequoia, and San Jose, in order named, have sort of ruled the roost.

Paly and Jefferson certainly were entitled to vie for the top spot if anyone is. They've been away from royalty so long.

Through the years the kings have been:

1933—Sequoia
1934—San Jose
1935—Burlingame
1936—San Jose
1937—San Jose
1938—Sequoia
1939—Burlingame
1940—Burlingame-San Mateo (tie)
1941—Burlingame-Palo Alto
1942—South San Francisco
1943—Sequoia
1944—Lincoln
1945—Sequoia
1946—Burlingame-Sequoia (tie)
1947—Lincoln
1948—Burlingame
1949—San Jose.

It's plain to see that there are no playoffs in case of a deadlock. Three times in bygone years, two teams have had to share the glory. This condition doesn't satisfy either co-title holder nor the public who want to have just one top team.

There's always the chance that Paly might lose in one of their remaining skirmishes. It's a long-shot, but stranger things have happened. If Jefferson captures two more games, South City and Lincoln, they will wind up with a 7-1 slate. A Viking loss would deadlock the standings. Officially, then, both teams would share the spotlight. But, Friday's 21-0 whitewash would dictate the logical choice. And Paly probably won't lose, anyway.

BIG GAME WEEK

The colleges have their heated Hatfield and McCoy donnybrooks and the high schools suffer similar holiday fever in battles with their most-hated rivals.

Peninsula Athletic League "big 'uns" tomorrow besides the Indian-Warrior get-together find Palo Alto at Sequoia, San Mateo at Burlingame, and San Jose at Lincoln. All of the visitors except South City are this writer's picks.

Rained out last week, but scheduled later on, are tilts between San Jose and South City and Lincoln versus San Mateo.

Scocca, Schmitke Deserve Plaudits

Scocca "mothers" the Tribe with his multitudinous duties as football manager. John's labor is a thankless task. His job is full time, too. From the time the Tribe hits the practice field until they call it a day big John is busy. His duties range from equipment-lugging to tape-toting.

Schmitke is Jefferson's twelfth man on the field. Ray "charts" the play-by-play account of each Indian game for South. He skips up and down the sidelines as much as the football players. By gazing at Schmitke's scribblings, South is able to follow the progress of the Indian scraps. This gives the latter a factual picture on the trend of play and also provides the former with necessary information.

Schmitke authors well-written essays on the Tribe each week in the Totem Pole, school publication The budding journalist has reliable statistics and his coverage is good evidence that the lad is going places.

Jeff Cage Coaches Await Hoop Signups

Jefferson cage coaches Mike Orlich and Joe McGrath glimpse at Indian material for the coming Peninsula Athletic League basketball season Monday when signups for varsity and 130 pound teams are held.

From scratch, Orlich has only one returning letterman from last season's varsity campaign. He is guard Les Niceolini.

Centers Jack Allain and Ken Humes have since departed. Allain, the 6 feet 9 beanpole transferred to Serra of San Mateo. Humes moved to San Diego. Orlich counted on using both boths this fall.

Orlich and McGrath are looking up from last year's league race. The varsity posted only one win in eight PAL contests.

The thirties also suffered a sad fate as they ended up in the cellar with eight losses and no wins.

Maybe, the varsity and 30 quintets will follow suit.

League play starts after the Christmas holiday in January.

JEFFS HOST SOUTH CITY WARRIORS IN TURKEY DAY TRADITIONAL TILT

Once-Beaten Locals Are Big Choice Over Ben Bramble's Cellar-Dwellars

By ROY HURLBERT

Big Game, local style, is enacted in Daly City tomorrow, November 23, as Jefferson's title-toppled Indians go after the scalps of cellar dwelling South San Francisco in their anual Turkey Day struggle.

Big Rivalry

Coach Glenn South's Tribe is on the rebound from last week's Palo Alto spoiler, their only setback in seven games. The Indians, now content to settle for second place, could be awfully mean to their biggest rivals tomorrow.

But whenever old feuds are stirred up, one can never tell what may hapen.

The boys from over the Mountain aren't so futile as their record indicates. Ben Bramble's Warriors have lost five PAL games, but each defeat was by the narrowest of margins.

The visitors dropped four of their five tussles by the difference of one touchdown. And they gave lordly Palo Alto their closest test, losing to the Vikings by only 25-12.

Castro Injury Hurts

With just a little more drive in the right places, the Warriors might have been a winning ball club. At season's start, they were tabbed contenders, but they haven't lived up to that expectation.

Bramble's victory wagon perhaps lost its key wheel early with an injury to his best halfback, Johnny Castro. The shifty youngster missed a few games, but he may be in the lineup against Jefferson.

Kliem Ready

South's single wingers should be in top condition and the Jeff gridiron can't be worse than it was during Friday's near-flood.

Senior halfback Max Kliem returns to duty after missing the Paly game with a bum ankle. Fullback Ray Tschirgi's ailing knee should be better and he may be able to go at his best.

Weather permitting, Bob Gallagher may resort to the passing game which he uncovered in the San Mateo game.

The development of his bench in recent games, may allow South to substitute often. Of course, that's if the contest isn't a dog-eat-dog affair. Which it usually is.

Reserves Count

Galente, Chuck Tienken, and Dave Nathan, all second-stringers, ran well in the second half of the Paly tilt. These juniors are really coming along fast and are almost pressing for starting duty.

Galente was one of the best backs on the field in the Willow Glen tussle. He has tremendous possibilities as a breakaway runner. Izi is Jefferson's top sprinter.

Tienken is big and rugged. Filling in for Tschrigi on more than one occasion this year, the lad has come through.

Jefferson will be shooting for their fifth straight triumph in Indian-Warrior clashes. In the past ten years of the "Big Game," the Tribe has won six, lost three, and tied one.

Over that period, no more than two touchdowns have separated the clubs. South-coached outfits have captured four of five traditionals.

It could be close again tomorrow, but these Indians are a hungry bunch and they don't like to lose.

Orlich's 20s Get Cow Palace Cage Date In December

Greater things are in the offing for Coach Mike Orlich's talented 120 pound Jefferson basketball team.

The newly-crowned Peninsula Athletic League champions will play in the Cow Palace, no less, in three weeks.

On December 12, Director Frank Walsh has the Jeffs booked against the St. Ignatius 20s as one preliminary to the Santa Clara-Nebraska cage game.

This is indeed a rarity having two high school lightweight squads play before a big-time audience.

But, true to form, Walsh believes he will give folks a treat in staging the game betwen the two outstanding lightweight squads.

The portly impresario of the Geneva Avenue pavilion always tries to give the public the best he can offer. And the little guys are fine ball players.

St. Ignatius is San Francisco's outstanding 20s basketball team. They dominated the just-concluded Academic Athletic League.

The Jefferson 20s completed a terrific season last week as they measured South City, 32-15. This was another of their routs, their 11th win in 12 games. t gave them a perfect 6-0 league record and the championship hands down. The Indian 20's only loss was to Poly High in a non-league encounter. They literally ran wild over their victims and posted big scores.

Orlich's 10s nudged the South City 10s last wek, 20-14, to end their PAL season with 3-3. Their complete record read seven wins and five losses.

STEELHEAD ANGLERS' LUCK

Steelhead anglers have been having some very good luck recently along the Trinity River in the Trinity County area, according to the National Automobile Club. Most of them have been taking fish and the fish are running large.

QUAIL SHOOTING PROSPECTS

Quail shooting prospects are very good for the early part of the season in Mariposa County, according to the National Automobile Club. Many birds are in this area at present.

VIKINGS SUBMERGE JEFFERSON ON SWAMPY GRIDIRON; TRIUMPH MEANS VIRTUAL P.A.L. CHAPIONSHIP CINCH

Three Lightning Strikes By Visitors Plus Bobbles Deflate Near-Perfect Season For Daly City Team

By ROY HURLBERT

There is no joy in Mudville for might Jefferson has struck out.

Under the worst possible game conditions, Palo Alto's speedy Vikings sloshed their way to a 21-0 triumph over Coach Glenn South's dogged Tribe last Friday to virtually cinch the Peninsula Athletic League championship.

Vikings Whip Weather

Even the wettest of turfs didn't halt the nifty Norsemen as they ousted the Daly City eleven from co-leadership of the circuit.

Coach Hod Ray's untarnished crew just had to much of everything at the right moments in the rain-drizzled contest.

Backs Outstanding

Their swift striking trio of Jim Farrell, Dale Hendrickson, and Loren Sorenson made short work of it.

All three touchdowns were made via shortcuts, with the aforesaid backs doing the job in fast style.

The perfectionist visitors got a bid break—the turning point of the ball game . . . early in the second quarter which they promptly exchanged for a tally.

Jefferson clearly had the best of it in the first quarter The first nine minutes were see-saw with the Tribe getting the edge in a punters duel . . . between Ray Tschirgi and Paly's Merle Flattley.

The Indians put together a five drive to march to the Palo Alto 40 as the next quarter started but there they made their biggest mistake. A bad pass from center on first down was recovered by a Viking way back on the Indian 36 and that's when the tide shifted.

First Break

Four plays later, Pederson pitched to Farrell for 25 yards and the touchdown. The talented QB booted his first of two extra points to give Palo Alto a 7-0 advantage and the half ended six minutes later with the same count.

Six minutes into the third period the Vikings hit the end zone again. Taking a Jeff punt on their 24, the green wave sped to paydirt on five slants. Sorenson legged 38 yards on a quick opener for the six points. Again Pederson converted and it was 14-0.

Two more sprints by Viking carriers set up their lazy tally the next time Paly had the hide. Sorenson contributed a large share of a four play—67 yard march. The tiny right half skirted end for 29 yards and Farrell, now the PAL's top scorer, rambled the last 38 at his left flank for the clincher. Pederson completed an outstanding effort with a pass to Farrell for the 21st point.

Pair Block Kick

Jefferson penetrated Viking territory twice in the last quarter, but fumbles again killed off their drives.

Pat McCool and Rich Harrison contrived to block a Viking punt with an Indian recovery on the Paly 45. After two plays, the Vikes took over on a Jeff bobble. Three minutes left to go, the Tribe made another invasion. They got to the Viking 29 before the slippery pigskin eluded them again.

Coach Glenn South offered no alibis in defeat although he was without the services of regular right half Max Kliem. His senior co-captain watched the game from the bench with a bad ankle.

Line Play Equal

Bob Gallagher, the Indian's main running threat was held down for the first time this season. Ray Tschirgi's gimpy leg reduced his output considerably. Chuck Tienken, Isi Galente and Dave Nathan took up the slack with nice running.

The line play was adjudged about even, South opined. It was just a matter of Paly's swiftness and heads-up play.

South offered:

"We lost to a good team. They're the best I've seen all year, including highly-regarded Merced. Hod Ray's outfit has fine balance and they should go all the way. I don't think Sequoia or San Mateo will give Paly any trouble.

"We had an off day. And I don't mean to take anything away from Palo Alto. Those fumbles hurt us plenty. We sure could have used the services of Kliem at right half. Tschirgi's bad knee didn't help us any either."

South was proud of his lads even in defeat. Harold Hazen, Harrison, and McCool played great ball. Their comrades never stopped driving, but it just wasn't their day.

On the form chart, things weren't so bad as the final score. The Vikings had seven first downs to five for the Tribe. Palo Alto splashed for 159 ground yards and passed for 49 on three completions in five attempts. Jefferson finished with 137 land yards and 11 via the skies on their one successful toss in six altogether.

Fumbles Cost!

But here lies the rub. The Indians fumbled four times and lost the ball game because of it. The precision Paly's bobbled once, but recovered.

It only goes to show that the best team will emerge the victor come heck or high water. And the dikes were overflowing, too.

SMJC Gets Revenge With 21-6 Upset Over Monterey JC

Sweet, sweet revenge salved the pains of a heretofore dismal season for the San Mateo Junior College Bulldogs last Friday night as they upset previously unbeaten Monterey JC, 21-6, on rain-sodden Burlingame High School Field.

Coming up for the game with their Peninsula rivals, the men of Coach Herb Hudson apparently weren't going anywhere in the Northern California Junior College Conference. They hadn't won a league game and their record was nothing to write home about.

The Bulldogs entered the fray with one triumph in six games and possession of the Southern Division basement.

Monterey had ripped through eight oponents without defeat and were considered possible Little Rose Bowl timber.

But things were different after Friday's battle.

And it's a strange turn of events. For, last season, Monterey took a spoiler role as they knocked over the Bulldogs when the San Mateo eleven was going places at the top of the southern division heap. The Lobos were down and out last year when they accomplished the surprise, 33-13. The feat cancelled San Mateo's NCJCC championship drive.

So now things are even. Monterey still heads the southern division, even with the Loss. They tangle with northern division leader Santa Rosa JC soon for the NCJCC title.

Should they get over the powerful Santa Rosans, the Lobos' chance of getting a Little Rose Bowl bid are dimmer because of the San Mateo affair. One defeat can change the minds of the men in charge of the Pasadena spectacle.

San Mateo's touchdowns came on a second quarter sneak by quarterback John Leal, a 24 yard end run by fullback Bill Botieff, and a tackle Jim Ruffulo's 40 yard pass interception and run.

The last two Bulldog tallies came in the final quarter after Monterey drove 52 yards to bring the count to 7-6. Don Ouelette kicked three conversions.

This afternoon, November 24, the revitalized Bulldogs finish their football chores against Menlo in San Mateo at 2 p.m. The Oaks have a 1-4 slate in southern division play. Overall, they have three wins, four defeats, and a tie.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS ATTENTION: SIGN UP FOR JEFF NIGHT LOOP

Hurry, hurry, hurry.

Time is growing short before the deadline on team entries in the approaching Jefferson Adult Night Basketball League.

The annual competition is open to men of high school age and above. Games are played twice weekly in the Jefferson High School gymnasium, Tuesday and Thursday nights.

At present Director Glenn South has received but two entries and he needs several more to get the league organized.

Entries should be submitted immediately to South at the Jefferson gym office or via telephone call at PL 5-2511.

Who knows how many Don Barksdales or Hank Luisettis will turn up in the cage section. And besides, it's competitive recreation with everyone getting a chance to rack up a few points.

SALMON TAKEN

Some fair sized salmon have been taken in Tomales Bay, Marin County, during the past week, reports the National Automobile Club.

Stockton Slaps Rams In NCJCC Mud Duel, 31-7

When it rains it pours and the City College of San Francisco Rams know the full import of that old adage today.

It came up mud last week in Stockton and the Rams lost in a shower of touchdowns to the Stockton JC Cubs, 31-7.

The outcome wasn't figured so one-sided, but perhaps the valley boys were used to the murky going. After all, it only fogs in San Francisco, says the Chamber of Commerce. The Rams aren't accustomed to rain.

Stockton had a 19-7 half-time lead and pushed over two more six-pointers in the final quarter.

Grover Klemmer's huskies slushed to their score in the second period when fullback Bob McBride plowed over from the one. Moments earlier, the Rams marched 60 yards to the one but lost the ball on downs. A subsequent fumble recovery gave McBride his scoring opportunity. Rod DeCristofaro converted.

Hoop Leagues Start Soon For Youngsters

Basketball is next on the docket for Daly City's elementary school athletes.

The Jefferson Elementary School District and the Recreation Department are making preliminary arrangements for their annual leagues.

Three leagues are planned this time, including the addition of a "C" League. Director Erle Johnson reports that the C league would be made up of players from Garden Village, Thornton, General Pershing, O.L.P.H., and Jefferson schools.

Arrangements are being made now with Jefferson Union High School for the use of its gymnasium. Meanwhile, Castle Hall is open for practice games each Wednesday afternoon.

Johnson urges all boys to get together a team for league competition. Boys are urged to organize their teams as soon as possible by contacting their coaches at school or Mr. Johnson at the Daly City Recreation Department.

Help A Child...Buy Your Xmas Tree From The VFW

The American Legion, Lake Merced Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, both of Broadmoor Village, their respective Auxiliaries, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts and the Parent-Teacher Association, announce their annual Christmas Tree Sale.

The proceeds of this affair go, as usual, towards defraying the expenses of the Santa Claus party given by these organizations.

The trees will be on sale starting Sunday, November 26, and will last only as long as the thousand trees that we have on hand last, so be sure to stop in and see them. All of the profits go towards the children's party.

Come early and pick out the tree you want and it will be delivered to your home free of charge on the day you want it.

The lost will be between Rudies Restaurant and the Serra Theater on Junipero Serra Blvd.

The Darndest Things Often Turn Up In Books

He observed that recent loss of that picture of the favorite girl friend; or that small rose, freshly pressed, or that package of hairpins may be traced to a recently-returned book.

Perhaps the choicest item ever discovered was a small envelope containing some fiery red hair and labeled, "Ralph's—when he was 2!"

Daly City Is First With New Service

Frank Lombardi has once again proven himself to be one of our most aggressive business men. Just installed in his tow cars are new short wave radios enabling him to be in continuous contact with his trucks at all times, thus enabling him to make his usual rapid service an almost immediate certainty.

This accomplishment is the outcome of years of planning, and waiting to overcome many wartime shortages. Under the present conditions in the world today this service will undoubtedly prove a boon to the motoring public.

Operating on a high frequency, and known as station KMA 477, Lombardi's is now in a position to give the most complete and rapid service of any AAA garage in the state of California.

Although the cost of this modern installation runs into the thousands of dollars, the cost of service will remain at the usual minimum charge, because the radio will enable him to a greater volume of business. This leaves the new service as a saver of time and money to his thousands of customers.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS

When that traffic light turns to green it doesn't give you an unqualified right to surge ahead, declares the National Automobile Club. The pedestrian has his rights too, and if there is a pedestrian in the intersection you must allow him to clear before you move on.

Santa Maria, San Barbara County, is reported by the National Automobile Club, to be the center of the giant flower seed industry of the fertile Santa Maria Valley.

Publishers Set SF Meeting Dec. 1st

The annual winter business session of the California Press Association will be held in San Francisco Dec. 1 and 2, it was announced this week by Justus F. Craemer, president. The Clift Hotel will serve as headquarters during the two-day meeting.

In addition to afternoon business sessions, when a variety of topics affecting newspaper publishing will be discussed, entertainment is being arranged for Friday evening, Dec. 1 with the annual banquet set for Saturday evening, Dec. 2.

California's first hundred years of newspaper history will be the subject of a talk by Ed. M. Ainsworth of the Los Angeles Times. His speech has been titled "Blood, Ink and Giants—The Story of California's Great Fighting Editors."

Fairmont Hotel Plans Big Additnon

A thirty-two story addition to the famed Fairmont Hotel atop Nob Hill here, was announced this week. Cost was estimated at $7,000,000.

The new structure would be erected on the Mason Street main entrance side of the hotel property, with seven stories devoted to office space, 24 to rooms, and the ground floor to lobby purposes. A skyroom would top the structure.

Tentative plans for a $500,000 convention and banquet hall on the Powell Street side of the building, to replace wartime dormitories for military personnel, also were reported. The contemplated structure would have a seating capacity of 3000.

Rezoning of the area will be necessary to permit construction of the combination hotel and office building.

Varied Program For Chamber Meet

A varied program with outstanding speakers has been planned for the 23rd annual statewide meeting of the California State Chamber of Commerce, Agriculture and Industry, which will convene at the Fairmont Hotel Thursday and Friday, Nov. 30, and Dec. 1.

Meeting on Thursday, Nov. 30, will be the agricultural, industrial natural resources, taxation, highway and workmen's compensation insurance sections. On Friday, Dec. 1, the transportation, travel and recreation, industrial insurance, water resources and mobilization and plant location conference sections will meet.

Panel discussions are slated for the highway section and the mobilization and plant location conference. The legal and engineering phases of the rain-making question will be considered by the water resources section.

"The Shifting Sands of American Foreign Policy" will be the subject of an address by U. S. Senator Wm. F. Knowland, at a luncheon at noon on Thursday. Adrient J. Falk, Chamber president, will preside.

Xmas Concert Set At Burlingame Hi

Burlingame High School will be the site of the annual Christmas concert of the Orpheon Male Chorus presented Tuesday, December 19, Frank G. Guthbertson, president of the chorul group announced this week.

Proceeds of the concert will go to the Crippled Children's Society of San Mateo County. Tickets are on sale at Wollmer's Music Store, Burlingame, and the Peninsula Box Office in Levy's Bros. store, San Mateo.

Peninsula Group Has Industry Info.

Any industry wishing to locate in San Mateo County may now obtain full information by concacting the San Mateo County Industrial Committee.

The Committee will obtain "specific facts and figures" on the Peninsula to furnish any industry considering the area as a possible site. Members of 35 cities, including Daly City, make up the Committee.

Two committees were appointed by Chairman Charles Elder of South San Francisco at the group's meeting Wednesday. One will plan a program for encouraging industrial development and the other will determine how the parent committee can finance its activities.

The next meeting of the group is set for the second Tuesday in January in Belmont.

GASOLINE WASTED

Pumping an automobile accelerator pedal after starting the engine, or while waiting at a stop sign, causes excessive gasoline consumption, warns the California State Automobile Association. Each time the accelerator pedal is depressed a charge of raw gasoline is squirted into the fuel intake manifold.

Construction Tops County Employm'nt.

Construction is still tops as a single source of employment in San Mateo county Irene Bergman, manager of the San Mateo office of the state employment, said this week.

She added that reports from contractors, labor representatives and bank and real estate firms indicates that despite recent federal credit regulations construction should sustain very high employment over the next six month period.

All industries related to construction are also expected to show high payroll figures for the next several months.

This is due to a blacklog of construction contracted prior to the regulations calling for building restrictions.

Embezzlement Motives Discussed

Many embezzlers think of themselves merely as temporary "borrowers" unti lthey reach a point where they realize they cannot possibly repay the sums "borrowed," according to Dr. Donald R. Cressey, instructor in sociology on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

The ability to delude oneself by such rationalizations is essential to embezzlement, Dr. Cressey discovered in a study of over 250 cases of violations of trust. Also essential is the presence of a money problem which cannot be discussed with friends or relatives.

Findings of the study will be discussed by the University Explorer in a radio broadcast entitled, "Other People's Money," to be heard over the Columbia Broadcasting System on Sunday, November 26.

The broadcast will be released over KNX, Los Angeles (12:30-12:45 p.m.); KCBS, San Francisco (12:45-1:00 p.m.); and other stations of the C.B.S. network.

PEDESTRIANS FIRST

When making a right turn at an intersection, drivers should remember that pedestrians crossing at intersections have the right of way, reminds the California State Automobile Association. During the Christmas shopping rush, be most careful.

SALMON ANGLERS LUCKY

Salmon anglers have been having some excellent luck during the past few days in the waters of Tomales Bay just off Inverness in Marin County, reports the National Automobile Club. They have been taking many fish and most of these have been running large.

KVSM JOINS COAST TO COAST P.B.S. NETWORK

"Salute to Progress"—featuring such stars as Bob Hope, Spike Jones, Peggy Lee, Frankie Laine, Eddie Arnold, Mel Torme, Connie Haines, Hugh Herbert, Harry Von Zell, and Jimmy Wakely—will be heard this Sunday, Nov. 26, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. over KVSM (1050 k.c.) in the inaugural broadcast of the new, coast-to-coast radio network, the Progressive Broadcasting System.

The Progressive Broadcasting System, recognizing the growing popularity of KVSM, has selected the station as the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area outlet.

Commencing on Monday morning, Nov. 27, the Progressive Broadcasting System will present, over KVSM, a star-studded array of new radio programs on a 12-hour daily schedule. Top newscasters and commentators will be heard from Hollywood and Washington, D.C. Four dramatic serials, with such stars as Jeanne Cagney, Marc Lawrence, Hope Emerson, and Barbara Britton, will be heard Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Audience-participation shows, with such celebrities as Ann Dvorak, Harry Von Zell, Hal Sawyer, and Tom Hanlon, will be featured throughout the week. Charlotte Rogers will report Monday through Friday on Movietown News. Lou Nova, of prizefighting fame, will comment on the World of Sports.

Jimmy Scribner will entertain grown-ups from eight to eighty with his many-voiced Uncle Remus stories Monday through Friday at 4:45 p.m. For Western fans, Cottonseed Clark will present a half-hour show Monday through Friday, "Bar-None Ranch."

Mel Torme, Frankie Laine, Connie Haines, Stan Kenton, Hugh Herbert, and Bob McLaughlin will parade before the microphones of PBS, setting a new high in network disc-jockey shows. Many other variety programs will also be heard.

AVOID DANGER ZONES

When you walk, take advantage of pedestrian zones and avoid danger zones, urges the California State Automobile Association. Don't step into traffic lanes from between parked cars or from behind stopped street cars or buses.

HAVE CHECKUP NOW

With winter driving days ahead, you should have your car checked now, advises the California State Automobile Association. A little precaution may save you motor troubles later.

Geneva District To Be Decorated For Christmas

Christmas decorations will go up in the Geneva-Mission business district December 1, Walter Renner Jr., president of the Geneva-Mission Merchants Association, said today.

Renner asserted that fellow merchants and committees have been working day and night to make this Christmas decorated district the best in San Francisco.

The area to be decorated will include Mission between Russian and Ottawa streets and from Geneva and Mission to Geneva and Athens.

Santa Claus

Shoppers will also get a break as the stores from December 15 to Christmas will be open nightly.

"Little ones, big ones, mom, dad and kiddies too, come down and join in our Big Surprise Christmas celebration this year," Renner said.

He promised that this year's celebration will be the most outstanding in San Francisco with something different every day of the Christmas season.

SF To Get New Streetcars

The San Francisco Municipal Railway will get 20 to 30 new streamlined streetcars next year for service on the N, K, L and M lines, serving the Sunset and West-of-Twin Peaks districts, it was announced today by the Public Utilities Commission, which has earmarked $1,000,000 for their purchase.

At the same time the Commission announced it plans abandonment of all streetcar service on the lines during night hours and on Sundays and holidays, when gasoline buses will replace them and alternate routes around the Twin Peaks and Duboce Tunnels will be established.

Both streetcars and buses on the four lines will operate from the Bridge Terminal over Market Street and, after detour around the tunnels, will follow the regular streetcar routes to their outer terminals.

The Commission will present its plans to the Board of Supervisors in the next two weeks, where final approval is expected.

On Pegler And Dramatic Art

By RIDGELY CUMMINGS

Last month Westbrook Pegler, who often gets into a temper tantrum, became enraged with a New York drama critic.

I happen to belong to the liberal minority who think Pegler is one of the great journalists of our time, particularly gifted in how he says things rather than what he says.

Now that I'm a drama critic of sorts myself, having deluded the good people of Phoenix into thinking I know something about the theatre (and the way I managed that is explained by the old saw that a prophet is without honor in his own country while a stranger is frequently taken at his own valuation), I have a personal interest in Peg's diatribe and wish I had kept a copy of the column.

Pegler Mad

As I remember it, Pegler was agnry at this critic for a reason I no longer recall though I think it was political. He swung haymakers as only he can do and took unkind cuts at the critic's appearance, his morals and his choice of nightclub partners. Then, cruelest cut of all, he hit the critic in his most sensitive spot by inpungning his paucity of critical judgment.

This New Yorker, declared Pegler, had proven his unfitness for his job by fraternizing with actors. He had been seen to go backstage and thus had lost his claim to objectivity.

I am reminded of this because the other night I was guilty of the same thing and if Westbrook was right I had better hand in my resignation. Fortunately the old blowhard is often wrong; but he had a point to make after all.

Beer and Beer

When, after the performance, one sits drinking beer with the leading man and in between bottles dances with the prettiest girl in the cast, then it really takes a strong character to go home and sit down at the typewriter and blast the play and all therein.

Ideally the critic, according to Pegler, should be a cold, ruthless, objective eye on the audience side of the stage, who reacts solely to what he sees up on the boards, his opinions uncolored by any feeling of emnity or friendship for the actors.

I was in that position for a month and wrote some sizzling reviews, with the result that when I was invited to an after-show party I was a little wary, expecting to be bopped by some of my victims whom I had called hams and worse.

But everything was moonlight and roses, Miller's Highlife and music. The juvenile lead, a handsome young man who used to be a ballet dancer, backed me into a corner and gave me a liberal education on Ibsen and Satre and Shaw until the ingenue rescued me and insisted that I dance with her, she not knowing, poor girl, what she was letting herself in for, because if they gave prizes for clumsy, inhibited dancers I would take them all.

Full Glass

The drama director kept my glass full all evening. Various performers discussed with me in whispers the flaws of their fellows, pointing out that it would really be constructive criticism if I were to call attention to these faults in print. This was especially true of the girls and right after one actress had generously briefed me on the technical inadequacies of her rival, the other one came over and did the same thing for the first.

If I used all the ammunition I picked up at that party I'm afraid I'd be tarred and feathered out of town. Even now, with the review written and containing just a fraction of this inside knowledge, I may find myself back in San Francisco sooner than I intended.

Here's A Point

The point of this essay, for those who must have a point, is that Pegler was wrong again.

There is a great deal to be learned from discussing the play and the performance with those who are closest to it, the actors who have lived the parts.

Apparently it is possible to fraternize with the players and still write one's honest opinion of their thespian skill. But if Cummings turns up a victim of violence you will know that I was wrong and Pegler was right after all.

New Woolens That Won't Shrink

SCANNING the season's gift picture, we find a group of smartly styled sport shirts and socks, which — although moderately priced — have the unique feature of being able to withstand many washings without shrinking out of fit. Since wool has long been a favorite with men, this is welcome news indeed.

As a guide in buying these "won't shrink" articles, shoppers should look for the Sanforlan label on each garment. Pictured are three gift ideas that would be a welcome addition to any man's wardrobe.

The "Arrow" sport shirt at the left, in a rich "he-man" plaid with red predominating, is 100% wool, comes in small, medium and large.

At the right, from a line called "Polo Mates," is a newly styled garment combining the comfort of a T-shirt with the style of a sport shirt. Of 100% wool, it comes in tan, gray, navy or white.

The socks are by 'Camp," 100% wool with a reinforced heel. They have been handframed which gives them the appearance of hand knit Argyles. —By Robert Saxon, ANS Features.

New Clinic At Community Hospital Opens

San Mateo county's Community Hospital today has a new $15,000 out-patient clinic and medical welfare building.

The unit was opened last week by Dr. Harold D. Chope, county health director. The new clinic is the former nurses' home and is located north of the hospital building.

The two story building has been completely remodeled inside at a cost of $15,000. Work has been under way since May.

Designed to handle eight patients at a time, the new quarters provide more space for the out-patient clinic and medical welfare department and relieve them of a seriously congested condition in the old quarters in the hospital proper.

Commenting on the increased facilities for out-patient treatment, Dr. Chope said that out-patient visits had increased from 7,851 in 1946-47 to 15,462 in 1949-50 . . a jump of 96.9 per cent.

Tuesday, 8:30 p.m. — Emydian Institute No. 154, YLI, Holy Angels Hall, San Pedro road, Colma.

ABOUT THE BATTERY

It is not enough that the motorist keep sufficient water in his battery at all times, advises the National Automobile Club. He should know that getting the best possible service from this vital unit depends upon his never having it charge or discharge at too high a rate.

Thrilling Beauty Course Offered At McGraw Drug

The glamour and magic of the fabulous Fifth Avenue Salons of New York City will come to Daly City next week, and McGraw Bros. Pharmacy is the center of attraction for hundreds of eager women who wish to learn the secrets of charm and beauty taught by a skilled representative of that world-famous beauty expert, Mme. Helena Rubinstein.

Miss Gladys Amalong, a graduate of the renowned Five Day Wonder Course given at Madame Rubinstein's Fifth Avenue Salon, brings to Daly City all of the beauty secrets practised by New York women of fashion.

Be sure to get your exciting beauty gift that Madame Rubinstein's representative has for you! It includes a make-up palette, an exercise slate, a diet calendar and booklets on skin and hair care. It's yours for the asking!

If you have any personal beauty problems on hair care and styling, skin care and make-up, exercise, diet or fashion, ask Madame Rubinstein's personal consultant!

Go to McGraw Bros. Pharmacy to get your personal beauty analysis. Remember that Madame Rubinstein's representative is in town to bring you the same Beauty Wonder Course given at the famous Fifth Avenue Salon in New York City, and you are invited to bring your individual beauty problems to her for expert personal advice.

Be sure to make your appointment in advance, as the Helena Rubinstein Beauty Consultant will only be here from November 27 to December 2 at McGraw Bros. Pharmacy.

MORE QUAIL NOW

Quail hunters should have some good luck in the San Luis Obispo area when the season opens there November 18, predicts the National Automobile Club. There are more birds in this area now than there have been for several seasons.

Striped bass angling has been improving during the past week in the Solano County area, reports the National Automobile Club.

Each dial of the four-faced clock on San Francisco's Ferry Building is 22 feet in diameter with numerals three feet long.

"A FLOCK OF FELLAS NAMED TOM"

The tall Tom in the picture is a young resident of the Archbishop Hanna Center for Boys near Sonoma. The glum birds pointedly ignoring him are Tom Turkeys. Some of them will be present at the Thanksgiving feast in store for the Hanna Center lads.

DC To Get $3,463 From Liquor Fees

Liquor license fees totaling $3,463 will be paid Daly City for the six months period ending August 31, George R. Reilly, chairman of the state board of equalization, said today.

The total revenue from these fees for San Mateo county and cities will be $57,889. Unincorporated areas in the county will receive $15,616.

The state wide distribution total will be $3,133,793. The sum, soon to be distributed, will bring the state total payments during 1950 to $8,218,384.

The first Ferry Building in San Francisco was erected in 1877.

Drive Carefully On Thanksgiving

Over the road to Grandmother's for Thanksgiving dinner will be a safe journey if every motorist will be a little more careful than usual, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Reduced speeds and clear heads will insure a safe Thanksgiving trip, the Patrol pointed out. For motorists planning a long drive, the Patrol warned that hazardous weather conditions may be encountered, especially in the mountains.

"Check your car's safety equipment, paying particular attention to the windshield wipers, defrosters, brakes and lights before starting out," the Patrol admonished. "And if your trip takes you into the mountains, don't forget your tire chains. You may need them."

Those extra precautions will make you thankful Monday for a safe Thanksgiving Thursday, the Patrol said.

"Why should California lag behind the nation in its deer management program? We believe deer hunters will do well if they encourage adoption of up-to-date management practices, including the controlled shooting of does." George Curtis, Yreka Siskiyou News.

The Columbia breed of sheep was developed and introduced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to fill a definite need for a medium-wooled, whitefaced sheep that would thrive on Western ranges.

Impeatrice Bros. Steps Up Sales Of Kaiser-Frazers

Forty-nine Kaiser-Frazer automobile dealers throughout Northern California from Kern County north to Oregon, including Western Nevada, today completed organization as a corporation which will coordinate and intensify advertising and sales efforts.

Impeartrice Brothers, 7031 Mission St., local Kaiser Frazer dealer, is a prominent member of the new group. Under the corporate name of the Northern California Kaiser-Frazer Dealers Association, Inc., the organization will expand the work of the former cooperative which was confined to the Bay Area.

Aggressive campaigns on behalf of the Henry J., Kaiser, and Frazer automobiles are slated to begin in January, under direction of Brisacher, Wheeler & Staff, national advertising agency with headquarters in San Francisco. Leading newspapers throughout the territory will feature the drive, supported by outdoor advertising, radio, television, and local activities.

Kaiser-Frazer dealers and their salesmen are all highly enthusiastic about plans which will expand their services to the public. In the face of recent credit restrictions, they believe the sensationally low-priced Henry J. automobiles will be all the more attractive to budget minded buyers. They also look for 1951 to be a banner sales year for the style leading ultramodern Kaiser and Frazer cars.

Chairman of the new dealer corporation is Al Norwitt of Richmond, with Charles Foley, San Francisco, vice-chairman, and Jim DeBari, Oakland, as secretary-treasurer. The policy committee includes Jack Meder, Hayward; Hil Probert, Larkspur-San Rafael; Howard Chennault, Reno; D. O. Kinnie, Sacramento; Jack Greeable, Yuba City, and Wm. E. Predozzi, Hollister.

EL RANCHO DRIVE IN THEATRE OFFERS BIG HOLIDAY PROGRAM

Gloria De Haven and June Haver pay musical tribute to that famous thoroughfare, "Fifth Avenue" in one of the dozen production numbers which highlight the Technicolor musical "I'll Get By" starring William Lundigan, Dennis Day, and Harry James. The companion feature "Woman On The Run" stars Ann Sheridan and Dennis O'Keefe.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

Body held its installation assembly

The P. M. Ccrocker Student for the school year 1950-51 on Friday, November 10.

Present as honored guests were Supt. Snel, Mrs. Berg, president of the Crocker PTA, and Mrs. Attaberry, chairman of the room representatives of the PTA. The officers were installed by president of the P.M. Session, Sharon Hancock, who was elected to serve as the chief executive by her fellow classmates.

Officers installed were: vice-president, Micharel Sibetz; secretary, Darleen Liebhart; treasurer, Donna Odell; school representatives, Kathryn Taylor and James Selsor; sergeant-at-arms, Angela Lufrano; safety chairman, Charles Erickson.

The student council from the various rooms include: Merilyn Aidello and Ronald Cyer—Room 1; Patricia Hickey and Robert Low—Room 2; Vicki Tomasi and Phillip Fortier—Room 3; Barbara Evans and Gordon Tydingco—Room 4; Patricia Michelsen and Myron Kay—Room 5; Kathryn Taylor and James Solsor.

Room 6

During the drive the 5th grade in Room 3 had an interesting experience. They had the opportunity to put their contributions into an antique bank. This bank which is seventy years old is shaped like a clown with his hand outstretched. By plyacing the coin in the palm of his hand and then pressing a lever at the back, you can make the clown swallow the money. The children had a great deal of pleasure from this bank.

Two excellent movies were also enjoyed by this group, one on the "Life of Christopher Columbus," and another on "Safety."

Orchestra Plays

at the General Pershig School the Croccker Student Body Orchestra presented a thirty minute concert, which was the first of the season. This concert was presented for member of the Pership PTA. The unit is working hard preparing material for future programs.

The program presented included the folowing selections: "The Star Spangled Banner," "Hungarian Holiday," "Straight Ahead March," "Tahitian Moon," "Merry Maids Waltz," with a violin solo by Gus Sakaldasis and Philip McCowan, and "For Victory March." Officers of the orchestra unit recently elected include: president, Dick Hopman; vice-president, Peggy Sorensen; secretary, Robert Bridges; librarian, Arlene Trapp.

Glee Club

Glee club officers have ben elected for the A.M. and P.M. session of boys' and girls' glee clubs. The boys' glee club officers for the A.M. session are: president, Gus Sakaldasis; vice-president, Richard Watso; secretary, Gary Attebury; librarian, Brower Dimond.

There is only a girls' glee club in the P.M. session due to the shortage of time and space. These officers for the P.M. session glee club are: president, Angela Lufrano; vice-president, Mary Lou Schiaffino; secretary, Erleen Bergeron; librarian, Amelia Upchurch.

Room 1 — A.M.

Room 1, A.M. session, 8th grade, proudly reports that its room won the P.T.A. prize for the month of November for having had the greatest number of mothers and fathers present at the regular monthly PTA meeting held in evesession at the Crocker School. As a portion of the program the student body officers of the A.M. and P.M. sessions respectively were presented and introduced to the group of parents gathered, and a brief history of the development of student body government in Crocker School was presented by Lenita Johnson, A.M. session president.

A new executive officer added this term is the safety chairman, who also gave an interesting talk on "Safety," which was correlated with a few words on fire drill routine in the school. Jim Snell is safety chairman, and he was assisted by Robert Bridges.

Sixth Grade

The Sixth grade has been learning about the seasons; what they are and what causes them. They also learned that the countries south of the Equator have their seasons in opposite months than ours. This is of especial importance in the study of South America in the countries of Argen-MORE .... tina and Chile the seasons are the reverse of ours. Instead of having fall thy are now enjoying springtime with flowering treets and blossoms. Christmas, for them, ccomes during the summer vacation. In this study a map and the globe were both used and charts and diagrams drawn to show the relation of the sun to the earth at various seasons.

Seventh Grade

The students of the Seventh grade are studying the problems that confronted the people of India in their struggle for independence. The class enjoyed a motion picture on India which summarized these problems and showed them the leaders of the movement for independence. The students in the Seventh grade who have not been absent the first nine weeks of school are: Judith Broadbent, Darrel Hutchinson, Myron Kay, Edwin Kelly, Vanda Prescott, Andrew Ruelas, Thomas Tringali, Emilia Valdez, Gary Van Gundy, Doris Weiss, and Martha Wood.

The Seventh grade in Room 1 studied editorials on Livingstone in Africa and Lindberg. Later they wrote editorials and poems using the facts learned. Bob Grubb had a very god poem. In Social Studies they studied about the ancient wise man of China. They found that Confucius taught that men should do nothing to others which they would they would not like to have others do to them. This is called the "Silver Rule" in China.

Since the pupils of Room 5—EiEighth grade have had the work on the speed of light, some of them have brought newspaper clippings which stated that 186,000 miles per second is wrong. Modern scientists using mirrors, telescopes, and electronics have measured the speed of light more accurately. They measured 186,272 miles per second. Now this week Stanford reporters have challenged this figure. After five years' work, they report that light travels 186,280 miles per second.

State To Widen Bayshore Highway

The Commission this week allocated $70,000 in additional to original funds set aside for widening the highway to six undivided lanes.

Earlier, the Commission allocated $350,000 for the project which represents the first attempt to eliminate the bottleneck of the Bayshore Freeway.

COMMON COURTESY RARE

Each year thousands of men, women, and children are killed along our streets and highways, points out the National Automobile Club, because common courtesy is just not very common.

QUAIL SHOOTING PROSPECTS

Quail shooting prospects are very good for the early part of the season in Mariposa County, according to the National Automobile Club. Many birds are in this area at present.

SALMON TAKEN
